NATIONS SPLIT ON RECOGNIZING SPANISH REBELS

Spanish War Widens Breach Among Nations

Britain Refuses To Follow Lines Taken By Italy And Germany

ITALY PROCEEDS TO BACK FRANCO

Armament Preparations Are Accelerated As Result Of Latest Moves

(International News Service)

European cleavage over the Spanish civil war widened today with announcement in London Great Britain will refuse to recognize an insurgent blockade of Barcelona.

Italy made her recognition of General Franco's insurgent regime an actuality by naming a diplomatic mission to Burgos, and Germany was expected to follow suit.

Insurgent troops continued to hammer at Madrid's inner defenses, advancing yard by yard into a once-beautiful city now scarred by fire and shell.

Meanwhile, Japan virtually admitted conclusion of a pact with Germany directed against Soviet Russia, while in Moscow, Chinese authorities indicated a Russo-Chinese alliance might be formed if necessary "as a last resort".

The Fascist grand council in Rome approved sweeping "acceleration" of military preparedness.

By FRANK GERVASI

ROME, Nov. 10.—Preparing for all eventualities should hostilities develop from Italian and German recognition of General Francisco Franco's Insurgent government in Spain, the Fascist grand council today approved sweeping "acceleration" of Italian armaments.

At the same time, recognition of

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Over 1,000 new books, of which 90 have been written during 1936, will be placed on the shelves in the junior department of the free public library today. These books have been purchased at this time in observance of the National Book Week, in which the local library has taken an active part.

* * *

A very novel display in the window of the South Side branch of the free public library has been attracting considerable attention all this week. It consists of a large model, built exactly to scale of the Pottsville, Pa. Public Library. This display was built and arranged by Miss Sarah Mervis, branch librarian, who was formerly assistant librarian at the Pottsville library.

Great Britain's Stand Is Opposite To That Of Italy And Germany

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Adopting a stand diametrically opposed to that of Germany and Italy, Great Britain today announced its refusal to recognize General Francisco Franco's right to blockade the port of Barcelona.

Coming on the heels of Italian and German recognition of the Franco government, the British action served to accentuate gravity of the international situation precipitated by the sharp cleavage between Fascist and Communist camps in Europe.

Deplores Hasty Action

Britain has already officially "deplored" the "hasty" action of Rome and Berlin in extending recognition, but obviously fears even worse repercussions should Franco proceed with his blockade plans.

Dispatches reaching here from Lisbon said this step was planned because Franco holds there exists in Barcelona "a notorious traffic in

Margiotti To Discuss Special Session Need With Attorney General

By FREDERICK N. POLANGIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti today was Pennsylvania's emissary to Washington, entrusted with the task of saving $22,500,00 in social security funds for the commonwealth and averting a special session of the general assembly.

Under instructions of Gov. George H. Earle, Margiotti was to leave for Washington late today to confer with United States Attorney General Homer S. Cummings and the social security board and determine:

1. Whether congress will amend the present federal social security act so Pennsylvania, without conforming legislation, will not lose the 1936 benefits.

2. Whether such a retroactive action is legal.

See Need For Call.

Unless he receives "definite assurance" that Pennsylvania will not be jeopardized by its failure to comply with the act, Governor Earle said he will call another special session—the second within the past half-year—to make Pennsylvania eligible for federal unemployment insurance reimbursements.

Whether this can be done was a matter of conjecture on Capitol Hill today and of concern to the state's chief executive who frankly admitted that to foretell what the next

Fire Drills Are Held In Schools

Fire Chief McIlwain Submits Report After Conducting Drills At Different Schools

After a series of fire drills in the schools of the city, Fire Chief A. P. McIlwain has submitted a report of the results to Director of Public Safety J. M. Rice, with recommendations for improvements which will decrease hazards which were found at different buildings.

It was found that it required anywhere from a minute to six minutes to empty the different buildings, one of the largest schools, Lincoln and Garfield, having one of the best records, with the building being emptied in one minute and two seconds.

A fire drill was also held at the Lawrence school, which is occupied by over 400 women in the sewing project of the W. P. A.

Rebel Troops Batter Way To Madrid Center

(International News Service)

AVILA, Spain, Nov. 19.—With destructive fires in the southern and eastern quarters of Madrid reported spreading rapidly, insurgent troops battered their way yard by yard toward the center of the city today.

Rebel headquarters claimed capture of the model prison and two army barracks . wo insurgent columns under General Juan Asenio and Col. Barron have reached the north station, chief terminal of Madrid, which is now in flames. The southern station also was reported afire.

Urge Extension Of R. F. C. For Year

Secretary Of Treasury Favors Additional Year's Service For Corporation

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Extension of the RFC for an additional year was urged today by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau.

Denying reports he had had personal differences with RFC Chairman Jesse H. Jones, Morgenthau asserted that in his opinion "the time has not yet come when the country can dispense with the corporation.

"If Congress asked my advice, my answer would be that it is important the corporation be extended for another year," the secretary added.

Unless Congress enacts continuing legislation the RFC would expire January 31.

Morgenthau emphasized that it is up to Jones to make such recommendations as he sees fit.

"I have not studied the matter thoroughly, but I feel that the RFC should be continued as a lending agency," Morgenthau continued.

"I have worked closely with Mr Jones for the last four years and I expect to confer with him on this matter shortly. There never has been any personal difference between Mr. Jones and myself. We have worked on many important deals and there never has been a cross word between us."

Fay Webb Vallee Taken By Death

Former Wife Of Famous Radio Crooner Dies In California

FAY WEBB VALLEE

(International News Service)

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Nov. 19.—Fay Webb, the dark-eyed former Santa Monica high school girl, who learned on her death bed that Rudy Vallee, famous radio crooner, still loved her even though they were divorced, lay in a funeral parlor today, a victim of peritonitis following an operation.

Death came quietly to the beautiful actress last night, after a valiant fight for the life she loved so well despite its disappointments.

Miss Webb was in a coma as she died. The major operation was performed Friday and peritonitis set in three days later. For many hours she was in an oxygen tent and several blood transfusions were made but her weakened heart failed to rally.

With Miss Webb at the end was her father, Capt. C. E. Webb, former Santa Monica police chief, who obtained a leave of absence when her condition became critical.

Greeted by all members of the Brazilian cabinet, Hull said he was happy to visit South America and expressed belief co-operation among all American nations for world peace would result.

Hull was received as official guest of the Brazilian government. He will be guest of honor at a foreign office banquet tonight with President Getulio Vargas presiding.

Rebel Planes In Third Bombing In Twelve Hours

(International News Service)

MADRID, Nov. 19.—For the third time in 12 hours rebel bombing planes swept over Madrid this afternoon, concentrating their devastating attack upon government and public buildings in the hub of the capital.

Madrid had barely time to recover from raids at 2:30 and nine o'clock this morning when a fleet of eight tri-motored bombers escorted by nine or 10 pursuit planes appeared over the city after noon and launched a new bombardment.

Fine Buildings Bomb Targets In City Of Madrid

Architectural Gems Of Modern Madrid Target For Rebel Shells

MANY CITIZENS WAIT IN SUBWAYS

Extensive Damage Is Continued As City Bombardment Continues

By THOMAS A. LOAYZA
International News Service Staff Correspondent

MADRID, Nov. 19.—Architectural gems of modern Madrid became a target for rebel shells and air bombs again today as another merciless long-range attack was launched upon the city.

While Loyalist and Rebel troops clashed in close encounter in the University city area beneath buildings scarred by shells and blackened by destructive fires, the capital was subjected to another artillery and aerial onslaught which caused terrific damage.

Two more newspapers were put out of commission in the first air raid of the day, between 2:30 and 3:15 a. m.

One huge explosive bomb crashed through the roof of a building next door to the offices of El Liberal and El Heraldo. The modern presses in the basement of the newspaper building were damaged badly by shell fragments.

Dozen Bomb Explosions

Four bombs fell in quick succession in the first raid. Then came four more, their explosions being followed by a deafening roar of airplane engines as Loyalist pursuit planes soared aloft to chase the invaders away.

Between the hours of 2:30 and 9 a. m., there were at least a dozen bomb explosions in the heart of the capital. One missile fell in Feuncarral street, opposite the telephone building, and another crashed only 60 yards from the Gran Via hotel, from which I witnessed the raid.This blast shook the building from top to bottom and caused injuries to eleven persons, including two children.

The second air raid at 9 a. m., was less destructive, but four or five bombs were dropped before the Insurgents were put to flight.

The military situation was reported virtually unchanged during the morning, although the government asserted Loyalist troops succeeded in driving Rebels from the vicinity of the Casa Velasquez.

Rebel Troops Push On

MAN AND WIFE ARE MURDERED NEAR INDIANA

Boarder In Home Is Held By Police Following Crime Discovery

(International News Service)

INDIANA, Pa., Nov. 19.—Stabbed to death with a butcher's knife, the bodies of a man and wife were found in the bedroom of their home at nearby White Station today, and shortly afterward police at Saltzburg arrested their male boarder for questioning.

The dead were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Spelock, parents of two children, Joseph, 9 and Vincent, 8.

The suspect, Andy Yacos, 52, unemployed miner, was quoted by Sheriff Harry Koozer as saying:

"How soon can I be electrocuted? Will it hurt? I did it."

Yacos, the sheriff said, confessed he killed the couple because the husband refused to share a bottle of liquor with him. Koozer further quoted the prisoner as asserting:

"I feel a little sorry I kill her, but I no care for Andy."

The bodies were discovered, Koozer said, after Yacos had failed to find Spelock's gun, with which he allegedly intended to end his own life, and had spoken of the killings to a man in Mooneen, another nearby coal town.

Yacos and Spelock were formerly miners, but recently had been employed on relief projects since the mines closed.

European Nations To Be Reminded Of Twelve Billion Debt To U. S.

"UNABLE TO PAY" ARGUMENT FADES

Huge European Investments In U. S. Securities Have Been Revealed

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The thorny question of war debts, dormant these last few years, is shortly to be revived again, with the United States pointedly reminding European debtors that they still owe the American taxpayer some $12,000,000,000.

That sum amounts roughly to one-third of the entire American national debt. It has been in default since Herbert Hoover extended his famous moratorium midway in his administration. Only little Finland has continued payment of every obligation.

To Send Notices

Within a few weeks there will go out from the treasury formal notices to the debtors that installments are due on December 15. Such notices have been going out regularly twice a year, in June and December, but they have produced nothing but excuses and lugubrious regrets.

This time it may be different. Europe received, in the American election, new and convincing proof that American public sentiment is solidly behind Rooseveltian policies, including that of non-cancellation. The last formal word in the matter was spoken by President Roosevelt early in the new deal when he summarily rejected offers of the British and French, the two principal debtors, to settle at ten cents on the dollar. This was spoken to Ramsay MacDonald, then premier of Great

(Copyright 1936 By International News Service

LONDON, Nov. 19—Seated in the royal box, Mrs. Wallis Simpson attended the opera at Covent Garden last night, it was learned today.

Mrs. Simpson was a member of a large party, with Lady Cunard as hostess.

Other guests included Lady Diana Cooper and the Master of Semphill.

Mrs. Simpson's name was not listed at her own request. She sat in the rear of the box, wearing an evening gown of black velvet and an ermine wrap.

About her neck was a diamond necklace and she wore diamond clips on her gown, differing from the emerald clips she usually wears.

Prince Arthur of Connaught, a second cousin of King Edward, sat in another box nearby. He had as his guests the Duke of Northumberland and Sir Alfred and Lady Webb-Johnson.

The presentation marked opening of the opera season and was a gala affair, attended by hosts of society people and titled notables.

Goal Of $60,370 Is Sought In Campaign Now In Progress

Community Chest campaigners reported $11,748.50 of their goal of $60,370 subscribed when they assembled at the First Christian church for their first report session at noon today.

The intensive city-wide solicitation for the $60,370, which will maintain eight of the city's welfare and character-building agencies through 1937, opened Wednesday morning. The drive had been formally launched at the gala "Towne party" celebration in the Cathedral the evening before.

Today's luncheon report, first of a scheduled series of four, gave evidence that hundreds of New Castle citizens have done their part to "be a good neighbor!" Today the prospect visitation goes on, in the downtown business houses, the offices and the homes.

PROBE NEW MURDER ANGLE

New Turn To Russell Case

Report Possible Murder Of Another Man In Vicinity Of Morris Estate

RUSSELL MYSTERY STILL UNSOLVED

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19.—A new development in the Reid Russell death mystery, so fantastic that authorities barely hinted at its implications, caused a virtual censorship to be imposed today on the spectacular investigation.

It was reported that the possible murder of another man in the vicinity of the estate of Gouverneur Morris, noted author, where Russell's body was found in a garden swing, a bullet hole through his head, was under investigation.

Dual Possibility

Whether this startling new factor indicated that a homicidal maniac was being sought, or that Russell had incurred the enmity of a cold-blooded murderer who blasted out his life and then calmly placed him in the swing in a manner to indicate suicide, was not disclosed.

District Attorney Buron Fitts held a lenghty conference with Capt. Clyde Plummer, his chief investigator, countermanded preparations to seek a court order for the exhumation of Russell's body and said he would confer again today with Plummer.

Fitts did not reveal whether he believes, as does Plummer, that Russell was murdered, or holds the equally tenable opinion that the handsome 28-year-old Russell, despondent over financial reverses, carried out threats he had made to his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Morris and Lila Lee, the film actress, to commit suicide.

Makes Progress On Airport Grading

Excavation at the new airport near Parkstown Corners is approximately two-thirds completed, it was stated today by Lloyd McCormick, chief engineer of the Works Progress Administration. Of the 200,000 cubic yards of earth to be taken out, over 150,000 yards have been removed. It is hoped to complete the excavation by the first of the new year.

As soon as the excavation is completed the work of grading the remaining area of the port will take place and arrangements made to put a hard surface on the 3,000 feet runways.

At present, Britain is attempting to determine whether Franco intends to make the blockade effective, a necessary requirement of international law. Should Franco defy Britain's refusal to recognize the blocade, it was considered likely British warships would be sent to Barcelona to reinforce protection already accorded British merchant ships.

where the Loyalist now are centering their defense with artillery hurling shells in the Insurgents lines from the palacial courtyard.

The Rebel drive through the smoke-palled city, behind the unceasing din of artillery and aerial bombardments, is directed straight down the right bank of the Manzanares river, spearing through to cut off any possible counter-attack on the far side, while the left wing of the Insurgent army batters a path nearer the Puerta Del Sol.

Flames again erupted from a score of buildings, and the fire department announced twenty firemen were killed fighting the blazes.

Reports said 40,000 men had arrived here to reinforce the city's retreating defenders; but while more aid was awaited, many thousands jammed subway stations and other sanctuaries, awaiting, it was said, the surrender of the capital.

WAR DEBTS MAY BE REVIVED AS REAL ISSUE NOW

Britain. Since that day, MacDonald has fallen, and the governments of most of the principal debtors have changed several times.

Recent developments in the field of international exchange have strengthened the hope felt here that it may now be possible to do something in connection with these debts.

Europe Buys U. S. Securities

One such development was the recent revelation that Europe has been going in heavily for American securities and investments since the economic utpurn in the United States.

Figures recently supplied Mr. Roosevelt disclosed that there is approximately $7,000,000,000 in so-called "hot money" floating around in the American investment markets, and most of it comes, from those countries which are the principal debtors to this country. The money is called "hot" because it is exceedingly liquid, and liable to withdrawal overnight, with an unwholesome effect upon stocks and commodity prices here, and international exchange. To that extent it is considered "unhealthy money."

The important point about this money, is however, that its mere presence in the American market conclusively refutes the time-worn argument of the debtors that it would be impossible for Europe to pay its debt to the United States in cash.

Claims Not Valid

For a dozen years it has been the debtor's contention that payment, except in kind, which means goods and services, was impossible to attempt the transfer in actual money, they have contended, would wreck such world trade as is left, wreak incalculable harm in international exchange, and impoverish any country which attempted it.

Yet within a short space of a few years, Europe has managed to find and to transfer to this country some $7,000,000,000 in cash, or more than half of its total indebtedness, not to pay its debts, but to speculate with and to invest in American markets. And this has been accomplished without any disruption of exchange foreign trade, or any of the other calamitous effects so dark forecast. Moreover, Europe has managed to do this while every debtor has been spending prodigiously for new armament at home.

In view of the presence of this "hot" money, and forfeited by the results of the election, administration officials are now inclined to say to Europe: "What now becomes of the argument that you can't pay?" Especially in view of the economic recovery of most of the debtors, Great Britain, for example, which owes nearly $5,000,000,000 boasts that her recovery has been faster and greater than recovery in the United States.

Concrete developments are expected early in the year, for the myth "we can't pay" has been thoroughly exploded by the rate at which pounds and francs have been crossing the Atlantic to get in on the new American boom.

MARGIOTTI TO DISCUSS SPECIAL SESSION NEED

congress will do was almost impossible. He also expressed doubt as to whether congress could legally enact a retroactive measure of this type.

Governor Earle estimated a special session in this case to consider but one subject and last about five days (long enough to pass an employment insurance law), would cost the commonwealth about $75,000. He said he would ask the legislators to serve for $200 instead of the usual $500 as a "patriotic duty".

"I think it good business to spend $75,000 to receive $22,500,000," he said at a press conference.

If Margiotti does not meet with success, Governor Earle said he would call the special session as soon as it was legally possible. The present general assembly goes out of office December 1, which involves the question of when the governor can call the new group together.

May Issue Call December 1.

"I might have to wait until December 1 to issue my call because I think it might be impossible to summon a general assembly which at the time does not legally exist," he said, "but that is a minor difficulty easily overcome."

Margiotti is sitting on the board of pardons, but is expected to fly to Washington this afternoon.

With Democrats in control of both houses of the general assembly, it is believed that Governor Earle will meet with no difficulty in pushing through the measure if a special session is deemed necessary.

The unemployment insurance law died in conference committee the last session. The state has conformed with all other parts of the federal act but that one.

The question of constitutionality of the measure was raised on the senate floor by Republican leaders who pointed out the state would not suffer any losses were the bill defeated.

The ill-fated bill provided that any employer, regardless of how small he might be, would have to pay the necessary tax. The federal law covers all employers of more than eight persons . It was not known as yet if the administration contemplates to change the previous bill and introduce a bill similar to the federal law.

The department of labor and industry, under whose administration the bill would fall, estimated about 300,000 employers, affecting about 2,500,000 persons, would benefit under the federal act which provides that one per cent of every employe's annual salary be collected. This, to be paid by the employer, would amount to an estimated $22,500,000.

In order to conform with federal regulations it would be necessary to collect this amount prior to January 31, 1937, and set up machinery to administer this, considered by administration heads to be a gigantic task in view of the short time left.

Governor Earle emphasized it would not be necessary for the legislature to completely organize were a special session called. "It would take but a few minutes to elect speakers and appoint the one committee necessary," he said.

City Solicitor Gives Opinion Regarding Stone

During council proceedings at city hall today council received from Solicitor William D. Cobau an opinion in which he said due to the lack of any definite agreement regarding the removal of stone from the Ed Marshall property in Croton, Marshall cannot demand payment. He did say, however, that were council disposed the ctiy could pay for the stone and that the moneys payable could be applied to liens and back taxes on the property.

It is understood that negotiations now are under way between Marshall and the city for payment for the stone and that this will be in written form.

The stone removed from the Ray street quarry and other property controlled by Marshall has been used on projects for several years.

Pitt Declines Florida Game

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19.—University of Pittsburgh officials announced today they had received and declined an invitation to the Panther football squad to participate in the annual Orange Bowl game in Miami, Fla., on New Year's Day.

"We declined the invitation with thanks," officials said. The offer was extended yesterday.

GIRL RESERVES AT WASHINGTON MEET

Girl Reserves of George Washington junior high school held an especially interesting meeting Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in their assembly rooms. Miss Helene Edgar, president, was in charge, and Roberta Street led the devotional period.

After a report by Betty Reed, recording their last meeting, Jean Aubel, representative of the group for the All-Association dinner on December 1, gave a detailed account of the plans to be carried out.

An enlightening talk was given by R. Stadelhofer on his trip to Germany last year, when he gave several interesting comparisons concerning the standards of the countries.

At this meeting, Catherine Lynch and Shirley Boyd were appointed to take charge of the poster to be exhibited at the dinner. Ideas for the poster will be handed in to Genevra Hazen, adviser for the Girl Reserves of the school. Isabelle Balph will give special help for their Christmas program.

Deaths of the Day

Mrs. Margaret V. Wilson Rankin.

Mrs. Margaret V. Wilson Rankin, of 416 Pine street, died this morning at 8 o'clock after a three weeks' illness.

Mrs. Rankin was born in Neshannock township and, with the exception of four years, had spent her lifetime in this district. In those four years she had resided in Atlanta, Ga. She was the daughter of William C. and Mary McCracken.

She had married George Rankin on November 10, 1901, and her husband survives her.

She was a member of the Harbor Bridge United Presbyterian church.

Other survivors beside her husband are a daughter, Mary Lou, at home, and a son, Wells C. Rankin, of Youngstown. A sister, Miss Nettie Wilson, of New Castle, and two grandchildren , living in Youngstown, are also left.

The body has been removed to the home of her sister, Miss Nettie Wilson, 141 East Edison avenue, but the complete funeral announcement will be made later.

George J. Endress, aged 25 years, of 626 South Ray street, died in the New Castle hospital at 2:45 a. m. today after a brief illness.

Mr. Endress was born March 2, 1911 in New Castle, the son of John and Linda Schrier Endress. He had been a lifelong resident of New Castle, and was formerly a member of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church.

Surviving him are his wife, Anna, and three children Edna Mae, Carl and Marlene, all at home. His father, John Endress, also sufvives. Sisters left are Mrs. Albert Broucutt, Alberta Endress and Etta Mae Endress, all of New Castle, and brothers remaining are Woodrow Endress and William Endress, also residing here. He was preceded in death by his mother four months ago.

The body has been removed to the home at 626 South Ray street. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mrs. Alice Stiglitz.

Mrs. Alice Stiglitz, 105 Clinton street, Mt. Clemens, Mich., formerly of Wampum, died in the Michigan city over the week-end. She was the widow of Joseph Stiglitz.

Surviving her are three sons, Harry, Sam and Jack. Her daughters are Mrs. Fannie Needle, Olyphant, Pa., Mrs. Dora Wechsler, Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Sarah Harris of Detroit.

Robert J. Sargent

Word of the death this morning of Robert J. Sargent, resident of Sisterville, W. Va., but formerly of New Castle, was received today by Mr. Sargent's daughters, Mrs. B. L. Rea, 322 Locust street, and Mrs. C. L. Buchanan, 1420 West Washington street.

The telegram brought few details. Funeral information and other details will be announced later.

Leis Funeral Services

A large gathering of friends attended the funeral services conducted for the late Carl Leis at the Burke funeral home on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The impressive services were in charge of the Rev. Griff Thomas and Rev. J. George Knippel, both of this city, the former giving the benediction. At the mausoleum, special ceremonies were conducted by the Masonic order, with James H. Buckner, Albert R. Kingsbury, James L. Fink, Anson W. McKee and Charles B. Phillips, taking part.

Pallbearers were Keith McAfee, Preston Flaherty, John Bergman, Louis Sandler, Numa Vidal and Tom Paden. Honorary pallbearers included Joseph Laskey, Ludwig Appel, O. F. Russler, Frederick Brundert, Harry Stenger and Edward Davenport.

Many beautiful floral tributes filled the rooms further testifying to the high esteem which the deceased was held.

Interment was made in Oak Park cemetery.

Mrs. Rote's Funeral

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Ella E. Rote were conducted from the residence at 211 Patterson avenue Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the Rev. Wendell E. Minnigh of the Wesley M. E. church in charge.

Mrs. Margaret Grittie and Mrs. Margaret Chill sang beautifully two selections, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Good Night and Good Morning". Pallbearers were William Alexander, Morris Cox, Frank Cox, Albert Walker, Merle Allen and Edward Spencer. Honorary pallbearers included William Botham, Sr., James Birt, R. G. Leslie, James McClelland, William Britton and James McPherson.

Burial was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Franco became an actuality with appointment of Nobile Filippo De Ciuttis, former counselor of the Italian embassy in Madrid, as charge D'affaires of the Italian diplomatic mission to Burgos.

At a momentous meeting of the Supreme Fascist grand council, which Premier Mussolini harangued for two hours, the chiefs of the Italian state announced:

Accelerate Preparations

"Having heard and approved the data furnished by Il Duce concerning the military preparations of the nation, the council maintained:

"In this particular moment the nation must accelerate its preparedness—above all in the fields of the air and sea."

Soviet Russia's indignation at Roman charges of intervention in the Spanish Civil war was scored by the council. Rumors were revived that Rome might break off diplomatic relations with the Soviets when the council expressed its "entire approval" of Ambassador Dino Grandie's activities at the meetings of the 27-nation Spanish non-intervention commission in London.

In London Grandi nearly came to blows with Ambassador Ivan Maisky of the Soviet union over charges and counter-charges of non-intervention pact violations

The grand council also approved Grandi's efforts, fostered by Mussolini, to improve Italo-British relations in the Mediterranean.

Austria and Hungary Take Action

Austria and Hungary, closely linked in diplomacy to Italy, also recognized the "Nationalist" regime of Gen. Francisco Franco in Spain, arguing, like Italy and Germany, that the rebels control the major part of Spain, and no responsible government now exists in the remainder of the country.

The Spanish embassies accredited to Rome and Vatican City both formally expressed their gratitude for Berlin's and Rome's recognition of the Gen. Franco government.

It was emphasized in official quarters today, however, that if there be any breach in diplomatic relations, the first move must come from Moscow.

WOMAN IS INJURED

Mrs. Charles Andrews of Garfield avenue is improved as much as can be expected following a harrowing experience at her home when her arm was drawn into a wringer. A neighbor woman hurried to her aid and Mrs. Andrews arm was extricated. A physician was called and an X-ray shows that no bones were broken although the injury has proved very painful.

MRS. HOWLEY SPEAKS CONSERVATION GROUP

In the Euclid avenue home of Mrs. T. M. Shaffer on Wednesday afternoon, the November meeting of the Conservation department of the Woman's club was held.

Music was furnished by a trio consisting of Mary Louise Meehan, Robert Reese and Vance Dufford, and there was a splendid talk by Mrs. William Howley on the subject "Soil Erosion". The speaker, who is an authority on the topic, stressed the fact that replanting and terracing were the best known means of combatting sheet, wind and soil erosion.

Tea was served in the dining room from a nicely appointed table centered with an attractive floral arrangement. Mrs. H. R. McCulloch, department chairman, poured and the assisting hostesses were Mrs. Harry McKee, Jr., Mrs. W. A. Woodworth, Mrs. C. L. Mellinger and Mrs. R. A. Eckles.

The next meeting of the group will take place December 16 at the home of Mrs J. Clyde Gilfillan, 414 Clenmore boulevard.

Jolly Eight Club

Mrs. Sadie Duncan, Knox avenue, charmingly entertained the Jolly Eight club in her home Wednesday evening.

Five hundred was the main diversion, the prizes going to Mrs. Frank Dute, Mrs. William Stevenson and Mrs. Earl Dean. As a fitting climax, a most delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

On account of Thanksgiving next week, the club will meet on Thursday evening, November 24, at the home eof Mrs. Edward Timmer, Grant street.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY PROMINENT COUPLE

Mr. and Mrs. Eli M. Byler of Parkstown Corners, will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary Saturday evening, November 21. They will have open house to receive all their friends between the hours of 7 and 11 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Byler who are among Union township's prominent and widely known couples, were married in 1911 in St. Mary's church in this city, by the Rev. Father O'Shea, now located in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Byler was the former Julia Trushel, daughter of Lawrence Trushel, of Union township, a pioneer resident of this section.

They have scores of friends in the vicinity who will be pleased to rejoice with them on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

CIRCLE '91 AIDS WITH SEWING AT HOSPITAL

Reading Circle '91 members met in the Solarium of Jameson Memorial hospital Wednesday morning, to continue with the sewing on garments and linens to be used in the hospital. This marked their last assembly as hostesses over the weekly sessions held at the institution, and during their leadership they accomplished a large number of items for immediate use.

During December however, members of the Current Events of '23 will fill the role of hostesses, with meetings to take place on Wednesday's as in the past. Their first gathering at the hospital will be held Wednesday, December 2, at 9 o'clock.

Other women will be welcomed to attend and take part in the sewing project on this date. Transportation will be provided by Mrs. James D. Crawford, chairman of the motorcade committee, for anyone desiring this accommodation. A large attendance is anticipated.

LUNCHEON EVENT FOR M. E. WOMEN

An even hundred women were guests at a very lovely luncheon event in the First M. E. church Wednesday, sponsored by the Guild.

Greeting the guests as they arrived were Miss Mary Alice White, Mrs. Grace W. Crawford, Mrs. J. C. Leohner and Mrs. Ida Hamilton. The affair was held in the big church dining room where small tables were attractively adorned with bowls of chrysanthemums in hues of yellow and orchid. The candies were also in pastel tints, each place being graced with a miniature corsage of almonds in the form of a flower the artistic handwork of Mrs. M. R. Hornung.

At the speakers table covers were arranged for Miss Mary Alice White, Mrs. Margaret Shields, Mrs. Helen Urmson Felch, Mrs. Anna Pyle Moore, Mrs. J. C. Leohner, Mrs. Ida Hamilton and Mrs. James Pherson.

Mrs. Shields gave the invocation and after the appetizing menu had been enjoyed, Miss White introduced Mrs. Felch who sang a group of three numbers in her usual artistic style. Selections included, "Smilin' Through", "Your Song of Paradise" and "Tired". Mrs. Pyle furnished a delightful accompaniment.

The program was turned over to Mrs. Leohner, second vice president, who introduced the new president, Mrs. Grace W. Crawford and other officers: Mrs. Ida Hamilton, first vice, Mrs. J. C. Pherson, secretary, and Mrs. James Elmore, treasurer.

Little Mary Alice Falls, dressed in an old fashioned blue taffeta frock, with pink pantaloons, and jaunty blue bonnet, appeared on the scene and presented Mrs. Crawford with a lovely corsage. She sang sweetly, "A Perfect Little Lady". Mary Alice, by the way, is a member of the new president's Sunday school class, and when she had finished her melody, Mrs. Crawford responded graciously, voicing her thanks and speaking of Guild activities for the new year.

The affair throughout was most successful and delightful and much praise was heard for the committees in charge. Mrs. Bessie Coates Pitzer served as general chairman, and other committees were: Mrs. James Elmore, menu and kitchen, assisted by Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. W. C. Campbell, Mrs. Earl Buzard.

Service room, Mrs. Harry Ward, Mrs. C. F. Watkins, Mrs. J. R. Hodge; Dining room, Mrs. C. F. Steinbrink, Mrs. Ralph Shiner, Mrs. Paul Pattison, Mrs. C. F. Watkins, Mrs. C. C. Headland.

Decorations, Mrs. M. R. Hornung, Mrs. Vennor Bright, Mrs. C. C. Headland; Tickets, Mrs. Bessie C. Pitzer, Mrs. Vennor Bright, Mrs. M. R. Hornung; Coffee, Mrs. J. R. Hodge, Mrs. Harry Ward.

Out of town guests present included Mrs. Frank McArthur, a former member and Mrs. Irving, of Youngstown.

Rebekah Degree Team.

Rachel Rebekah degree team will meet at the home of Mrs. Emmett Gillespie, 715 Emerson avenue, Friday evening, November 20.

SURPRISE SHOWER FOR RECENT BRIDE

Complimentary to Mrs. George Stevenson of Niles, O., the former Mable Mershimer of this city, a delightful party was given Wednesday evening, in the Meyer avenue home of Mrs. Robert Dailey, with Mrs. Oliver Smith of Norwood avenue, co-hostess.

Bridge and 500 claimed attention, the smart awards falling to Mrs. Roy Samuels and Mrs. Harry Evans respectively. Yellow and white tints were favored in dainty refreshments served at the three small tables.

Featuring the evening's entertainment was a shower of beautiful gifts for the bride, who was completely surprised.

RECENT BRIDE AGAIN HONORED AT PARTY

Mrs. James States, nee Frances Fraser, was again honored on Tuesday evening, when her sisters, Mrs. G. L. Dodds and Mrs. E. J. McCormick, entertained at another delightful shower in the home of their mother, Mrs. J. B. Fraser, of 607 Highland avenue.

The guests while away the hours playing games and with social chat. Prizes were won by Mrs. Carl Bender and Mrs. Harold Gibson. At a suitable hour, the hostesses served a dainty lunch. The honored guest received an array of lovely and useful gifts. Out of town guests included, Mrs. Walter Jones and daughter, of Sharon.

Mrs. States was a bride of October 24 and will reside in her new home in Punxsutawney, after December 1.

BIRTHDAY HONORED AT P. H. C. ASSEMBLY

At the regular meeting of the Protected Home Circle held Wednesday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall when the semi-annual nomination of officers took place, Treasurer George W. Wyman was pleasantly surprised when his family joined the lodge members in a celebration honoring his birthday anniversary.

George Muse, in behalf of the assembly, presented the guest of honor with a handsome gift. Following an appropriate response, remarks were heard by several of his closest associates, further commemorating the happy occasion.

Special guests in attendance included Grand Secretary Joseph Spencer and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Burwing and daughter, Polly, of Sharon.

A short program ensued with the following taking part: Eileen Murphy, song and dance; Irene Rook, reading; Dennis Allshouse, saxophone solo with Mary Kirkpatrick, accompanist; Gus Burwing, tap dance, and immediately afterwards, the group of fifty-five guests were invited to the dining room, where they were served a tasty collation. Tables were attractively arranged in keeping with the birthday motif, a large tiered cake forming the centerpiece. Guardian Kathryn Cowles and her committee were in charge. An informal social period concluded the event.

Junior Counsellor Mrs. Helen Ray announced a tureen dinner for 6:30 o'clock on December 2, for Junior and Senior P. H. C. members.

HOSTESS HONORED AT CLUB AFFAIR

Wednesday evening's meeting of the Pandoras club was one of the most delightful occasions of the autumn season. Mrs. Eleanor Bassano of East Lutton street proved a most charming hostess.

Featuring the event was a handkerchief shower honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Bassano. She was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Cards and social chat were the popular pastimes, card prizes going to Mrs. Ruben Pratt, Mrs. Louise Ciccerone and Mrs. Anthony Sacco. Club token was awarded to Mrs. Christine Lombardo at the conclusion of the affair, the hostess served a luscious luncheon.

In two weeks Mrs. Elizabeth Peluso, Mable street, will entertain the club.

MENTZER-McGEORGE STEUBENVILLE WEDDING

Rev. Chauncey K. McGeorge, pastor of the Second U. P. church, officiated at the wedding in Steubenville on Saturday, November 14, of his son, Gerald George McGeorge, to Eleanor Frances Mentzer, only daughter Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Mentzer.

The ceremony was a colorful autumn event, solemnized at 3:30 in the afternoon in the living room of the bride's home, 300 Reserve avenue. Immediate families, relatives and intimate friends were guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was most attractive in her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin, princess lines, with an effective bolero of rose point lace and a long train. The full wedding veil fell from a cap of tulle trimmed in orange blossoms and held in place with a chin strap. Her flowers were gardenias, white roses and lilies of the valley.

Louise Watson, her only attendant, wore nile green velvet and an off the face hat of golden brown with a short veil. Her flowers were white mums and bronze pom poms.

Hugh McMillin, Cincinnati, was best man, and the ushers included Tyler Weymouth, Cincinnati, and Clyde Chalfont, Steubenville. Music for both the wedding and reception was furnished by Thomas Care.

Receiving with the bridal party after the service, the bride's mother wore a gown of golden brown crystalle velvet with a corsage of gardenias and bronze pom poms. Mrs. McGeorge, the bridegroom's mother, wore Coronation blue, with a hat of the same color, and a corsage of gardenias.

Young Mr. and Mrs. McGeorge are on a wedding trip to Asheville, N. C. For travel, the bride chose brown wool duvetyne with a luxurious fox collar and accessories of brown and a gardenia corsage. After November 24 they will be at home at 6434 Kennedy avenue, Cincinnati.

The bride is a graduate of Bishop Thorpe Manor school and Katherine McGibbs school, Boston. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. McGeorge. He attended Muskingum college and is a graduate of Carnegie Tech. He is connected with Proctor & Gamble in Cincinnati.

In addition to the groom's parents, there was present at the wedding two sisters, Misses Elsie and Marjorie McGeorge of this city, and many others from neighboring towns.

MOTORING NEEDS OF DAY

THERE is apparently no end to the subjects which may be investigated with benefit to humanity. Research in biology, chemistry, psychology and allied sciences is no longer surprising. The results are often amazing and recently marvelous and practical results have beeen obtained, but research in itself as an activity and urge seems in no wise startling. The public is more likely to be astonished by scientific examination of some of the common, every-day things which it accepts as blessings or otherwise.

One of the latter is glare from automobile headlights. Some manufacturers of lamps have tried various devices for filtering the light through dark glass, for shading the bulb, and for directing the rays downward, but so far as is known, none of these has been scientifically tested and found satisfactory and their production has been relatively haphazard.

The search for the non-glaring headlight and the 100 per cent efficient glare-eliminating windshield must go on. The reward for the discovery will be fewer traffic accidents, thousands of lives saved annually and faster and more comfortable night driving.

While manufacturers, scientists and inventors are on this quest let them also look about for a fog-piercing automobile light, a traffic light that will actually expedite traffic, and an automobile horn that warns without wrecking heart and nerves.

WHAT $220,000,000 COULD BUY

For the first nine months of this year, the nation's estimated fire loss amounted to about $220,000,000. This marked a $30,000,000 advance over the loss sustained in the same period last year.

We have become accustomed to thinking in vast figures these days, and we say a billion more easily than we used to say a million. But the fact remains that $220,000,000 is a lot of money—as a little analysis will prove.

Suppose that instead of burning up that $220,000,000, we had put it to productive use. What could it have done?

We hear much of the housing shortage in this country. The money we gave to the god of fire in nine months could have built 55,000 homes at a cost of $4,000 each—homes which would have comfortably housed 200,000 to 300,000 people.

There are millions of men in our country who lack steady jobs. Had we put that $220,000,000 in productive enterprise, it would have given more than 300,000 men work for a solid year at the rate of $60 a month.

Many parts of the country are still in need of good roads. If we had put that $220,000,000 into road construction, it would have built 44,000 miles of highway costing $5,000 per mile—a road long enough to go back and forth across the continent almost 15 times.

Finally, to give an idea of the magnitude of the sum destroyed by fire in less than a year, $220,000,000 represents interest at 5 per cent for twelve months on the vast sum of $4,400,000,000!

Is fire prevention worthwhile? It is worth the little time and effort that is required of every individual to make it an actuality? Read the above again, and make your own answer.

STILL PIONEERING

Dr. Compton, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, again pleads the cause of research both in pure science and the more practical field of industry.

The layman will not dispute the prediction of the Massachusetts professor that research will unlock as many doors in the future as it has in the past.

For the nation as a whole inventions are the most effective answer to the so-called technological unemployment. Just as the machine has taken away jobs, the scientific spirit which gave it birth, can and does, open up others.

CHARLES EDISON'S APPOINTMENT

Appointment of Charles Edison as Assistant Secretary of the Navy will doubtless be widely approved. Although he has been associated with New Deal activities since the beginning of this administration, the selection of Mr. Edison for this exceedingly responsible post, which has been vacant since the death of Henry L. Roosevelt last winter, is evidently on the basis of merit.

Mr. Edison is an exception to the popular saying that the son of a famous father is handicapped in his career. As head of the varied Thomas A. Edison industries he is credited with exceptional business ability and acumen, qualities which will now be devoted to the public service. In the World War President Roosevelt filled this position and is intimately acquainted with its important duties. Further appointments based on this sound principle should strengthen his second administration.

BOOMING ALASKA

A group of farming families which couldn't make a go of it in the states and were transplanted by the government in far-off Matanuska, Alaska, is reported contented now and "self-supporting."

The extent of the "self-support" may be questioned when it is stated that Uncle Sam is still called upon to give each family $75 a month in orders on the government store, the only one in the colony, with which they can buy anything in stock. In addition each family is given $5 a month in cash to spend as they choose. There are various other financial grants from the government.

This is assistance of a very substantial sort—$20 a week—for families which are supposed to be raising their own food and who were staked generously by the federals at the start of their venture. They should be well satisfied, despite the severity of the climate, since the government is taking excellent care of them, but they themselves would hardly claim to be "self supporting."—Meriden, Conn., Journal.

The President's Trip.
Business, Also, Perhaps.
Old Guard Surrenders.
Have It, And Tell It.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

THE PRESIDENT leaves on a twelve thousand mile trip to Buenos Aires and return. After addressing the opening session of the Pan-American peace conference, he will return, probably breaking records for the trip, by water.

Fortunately, he is going to South America, not to Europe. The country has an unpleasantly distinct recollection of Woodrow Wilson's trip to Europe and what it cost.

POSSIBLY President Roosevelt undertakes this long journey, not entirely occupied with thoughts of war or peace, since there is no danger of any United States war with anybody on either American continent.

Better business may also be in his mind. European countries for good reasons seek to stir up ill feeling against this country among our South American neighbors.

That should be difficult to do after the President has talked to them face to face; and it ought to be impossible, if he should also talk to all of them by radio.

THE FACT that the insurgents, representing Christianity, brought the Moors to kill their fellow Spaniards would not surprise Spain's national hero, the Cid. He fought in bloody civil wars, among Christians, and sometimes fought with the Moslems, against this or that Christian-Spanish group — truly a distressful country.

SENATOR CAPPER of Kansas passed across the November 3rd maelstrom, safely reached the far side and returns to the Senate, one of six suriving "Old Guard Republicans" and the survivors are not so very Republican, with one exception.

Senator Norris of Nebraska, who ran as an independent, is one survivor, with Senator Borah, dean of the Senate, and Senator Hiram Johnson, who supported Roosevelt in 1932, and because of illness, said little, this time.

Senator Hale of Maine, who was lucky enough to run two years ago, is the only genuine Republican Old Guard left; the others, thirty-odd, have been killed off within 10 years. The "more or less Republican"

MAN IN A NEW PAIR OF SOCKS

The man rolled out of bed, took a shower, and shaved, dressed and put on a new pair of woolen socks. Then he put on a comfortable pair of shoes and went down to breakfast. . . He felt fine. Everything was fine. He was happy. Sitting at breakfast in his warm woolen socks, he wriggled his toes and thought how difficult it would be to describe the good feel of comfortable socks in comfortable shoes and how it happens that a little thing if it is just right can make a man happy.

The man finished his breakfast and kissed the family goodby and went walking down the hill . . . and everything was still fine . . . The dogs of the neighborhood were roughhousing together on the corner. They looked up at him as he passed and said hello and went back to their play . . The way the sun just coming over the hill slanted through the trees and made the dew shine on that wet slate roof was nice to see. And that small boy running down the street swinging his school books by a strap made happiness for the man with the new woolen socks . . . A lady in her garden leaned over the gate and gave him a little pink rose for his buttonhole, and she might not have done it if he hadn't been wearing those fine new socks. Of course she didn't know about them, but she Could see he was happy and she thought a flower would make the picture perfect.

And everything stayed fine all the way. He made his train without running and he met a good friend who was cheerful, too, and nothing happened all day to upset him. And maybe it was because of those new woolen socks and maybe it was just because, feeling so fine, they gave him a good start on the day.

O Sour Philosopher! you say it silly for a man to be happy all one day for such a trivial reason. You say happiness should rise from profound and perfect adjustment to life? From inner peace, from spiritual security? . . . Yes, Philosopher, yes, I know, but happiness can start from little things and rise to greater ones until it pervades a man's whole being. . . . I have this on the testimony of a man who was happy all day because he put on a fine pair of new woolen socks in the morning. And his word is enough for me.

Sun sets tonight 4:41. Sun rises tomorrow 6:51.

"Learn about law at home," reads an advertisement. Shucks, that's nothing new. Many a man has the law laid down to him every night by his wife.

Some of us never have any luck. A South American country exempts newspapermen from taxation. In this country, only government employes are exempt, and they are getting so numerous it's going to be too bad pretty soon.

Clerk: "I've lost my eraser and I'm using my rubber heel instead."

There was nothing but coffee at the VanQuentin home the other morning. Mr. VanQuentin was sent out for a loaf of bread, and thoughtlessly brought home an unsliced loaf.

RESTAURANT SLANG

The day of the amusing restaurant vernacular is not past as many have thought. A friend of ours recently walked into a beanery in the downtown section.

"I want a hamburger," he said.

"One bull," shouted the waiter to the cook, out of sight in the rear of the place.

"And put a slice of onion on it," our friend added.

There was another cry to the cook, "pin a rose on him."

Vegetables are being used for auto parts, we read. One might add citrus fruits, too, as we hear so many people speak of having bought a lemon.

We Americans never change. We planned secession in 1776, 1803 and 1860, and we still won't play if we can't pitch.

If he says that his wife relieves him of trivial duties and annoying details, he means that she totes the pocketbook.

If you're wife is not interested in who may be picked as All-American full back, it may be that she is not interested in such puny sports as football after a whole day of counter bargain crashing.

"Now dear," she said, "sit down and write the story of your life for me."

A few minutes later, the mother came back to see how Joan was getting along. Picking up the paper, she read:

"I was born eight years ago in a horrid, dirty, New York slum, while my beautiful, young and selfish mother was having a good time in Paris."

Another explanation of an alcoholic is that his wife's reaction is sympathy instead of disgust.

Governor George H. Earle is said to have saved the life of a member of his fishing party the other day, when the boat crashed. Wonder what would have happened if the fellow had been a member of the opposite party, against which the governor said some perfectly scandalous things during the recent campaign?

By FRANCINE MARKEL

DEAR Miss Markel: I am a girl of 16 going with a boy of 17. I have never met his parents but his mother is having an anniversary party and he wishes me to go. Do you think it would be proper for me to attend? If so, how should I act?
M. I.

Answer: You really should not go to the party on his invitation alone. His mother should call you on the telephone or write a note inviting you. Suggest this to him. Tell him you do not like to attend on his invitation.

When you arrive at the party, go to his mother and father and offer your best wishes to the former and congratulations to the latter. If there is no one else waiting to talk with the host and hostess, you may stay with them until some one else comes over to greet them. If they are surrounded by guests, move away after you have greeted them.

Be sure to go to your hostess before you leave and thank her for an enjoyable evening.

President Under Pressure.
Evaded Issues During Campaign.
Court Amendment Is Sought.

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

Liberals and labor intend to put pressure on President Roosevelt in regard to the courts. No one knows that better than the administration itself.

The president went through the campaign without committing himself specifically on vital issues. Liberals and labor are just beginning to sense that.

And they did desire commitment regarding the courts.

LIBERAL VIEW

Liberals are careful to point out it is not their desire that the executive branch of the government supersede the courts. But it is their insistent demand that the legislative branch of the government not be nolled by the courts. They quote Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln on that. Liberals have annotated assertions from these great figures of the past that to permit the courts to assume such power would bring an end to democracy.

As to the general opinion in the United States on an amendment to curb the supreme court on nullifying acts of congress, no one actually knows until a referendum is taken on the subject. Liberals, labor and even many farmers believe that the nation would approve such a constitutional amendment. They even declare that the election was a mandate to President Roosevelt to push such an amendment.

LEGAL PARALYSIS

We hear, from liberal mouths, that the bulk of the legal profession, and with it the judiciary to a large degree, is suffering from paralysis—that it has stood still while the world has moved on. That it is trying to inflict its paralysis on the remainder of us, that it has lost contact with the people and their problems.

There is no question that people have begun to doubt justice as dispensed by the courts. That is not so true of county and state courts, where the judges are elected or come into office through appointment of an elective official closely responsive to the people. It is true, however, of federal courts, where judges are appointed for life and are unresponsive to the current changes of life.

Furthermore, even in the Roosevelt administration, appointment of federal judges has been made from a political point of view. The majority of federal judges now on the bench are of Republican origin. They are, in fact, of a Republican decade now repudiated by the party as wholly out of gear. In the next decade, we shall have Roosevelt judges, appointed not because of their social views or their ability as jurists, but because they were politically potent, or were the pawns of political leaders whose support was sought by the administration.

These men, some of them quite unqualified to sit even on a minor bench, and certainly incapable of judging their fellow men or of judging great questions equitably, become tremendous powers unto themselves, untouchable and often arrogant.

There are many good judges—liberals hasten to point out—but the system now in force is a deterrent to democracy and to justice, and in the end breeds disrespect and violence, liberals say.

COURTS OF JUSTICE

Courts of justice are essential in every land, every unit of society. But is the legal profession broad enough, understanding enough, to monopolize the sitting in judgment?

That question is arising in both conservative and liberal countries.

Should courts not be composed of leading minds of the cream of society? Would there then be less likelihood of explosive, disruptive action within our society? Would there not be a better sense of justice, a broader, more understanding view of our problems—and less likelihood of autocracy and dictatorship?

These are pregnant questions being raised by liberals. These questions will not down, but will grow as the Roosevelt second term progresses.

The evolution of the questions into paramount issues will be a matter of sharp interest—and sharper debate.

MUSTARD PLASTER

I've had a lot of trouble, but the most of it has flown.
I can't remember half the woes that up to now I've known.
I've done my share of dreading, and I guess I'll do some more.
Still with fear and trepidation I approach the dentist's door;
But the cruelest of tortures I have ever had to take
Was that good old mustard plaster which my mother used to make.

At the slightest sign of fever she would pack me off to bed
And she'd slap that thing upon me till my chest was flaming red.
'Twas a tame affair to look at, but a dragon underneath,
Fire was flaming in its nostrils and I'll swear the thing had teeth!
From a furious volcano or some steaming lava lake
Came that good old mustard plaster which my mother used to make.

There's no human torture like it! Even Satan couldn't scrape
Coals of punishment together into such a soggy shape.
But the years lie long between us! Now the suffering I endure
Is a heartache deep inside me which no poultice known can cure.
Oh, if only I could see her, very gladly would I bake
'Neath the good old mustard plaster which my mother used to make.

Today's Yesterdays—Nov. 19, 1822—John Cleves Symmes, 42, retired Army officer, of Newport, Ky., petitioned congress for aid in fitting out an expedition into the interior of the earth.

He believed the earth to be a hollow concentric sphere, with openings at the poles, and the interior inhabited. Thousands believed him, and congress was petitioned by scores of groups of Symmesites. Surprisingly, congress wasn't convinced, and Symmes didn't get aid. But the fanfare was responsible for Capt. Charles Wilkes being sent with a navy squadron into the southern ocean to make explorations.

When Wilkes came back, to report the existence of an Antartic continent, he was accused in a court martial of having fabricated the discovery. It required 68 years for the navy to be convinced.

Nov. 19, 1831—James Abram Garfield was born in Cuyahoga county, Ohio, 49 years before he was representative in congress, senator-elect and president-elect all within 12 months. Though he is listed in most presidential summaries as a lawyer, he was a minister of the gospel (Disciples of Christ) when he was elected president. A minister who like Coughlin had turned to politics.

No winning candidate has ever been nominated under such extraordinary circumstances. He didn't have a vote on the first ballot in the Republican convention, and only one on the second, yet he was nominated on the 34th!

Later, however, it was decided to ask him to make a few remarks.

Book Week Climax Will Be Reached At Library Tonight

Displays And Book Play Will Be Viewed At Library Tonight

Today and tonight, the observance of National Book Week by the local free public library will reach its height. Today displays in the junior department were completed and will be viewed tonight by parents and children who attend the library to view the presentation of "Our Book Friends," by students at the Oak St. school.

These displays are both novel and educational. Small soap figures and buildings are constructed to form a little typical Dutch village. Dolls have been dressed in Dutch costumes and are wending their way about the streets of the village. This Dutch display is sponsored by the members of the fifth grade at Thaddeus Stevens school, under the direction of Miss Louise Davies.

A number of other displays will be in place about the library to attract the attention of visitors. In addition to the displays, several souvenir booklets will be distributed to those in attendance, according to Miss Alice Joyce, children's librarian. The displays have been arranged under the direction of Miss Joyce and aided by Miss Florence Paul and Norman Wadlinger.

Promptly at 8:15 tonight the curtain will go up on this play by the Oak street students and quite an audience is expected to be present. Due to this fact only children, accompanied by their parents will be admitted to the play.

CHURCH NEWS

On November 22, Sunday morning, Sunday school will take place at 10:30 o'clock, followed by the sermon in charge of Rev. Engle of Bessemer; Christian Endeavor at 7:30 o'clock.

FAREWELL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Munnell were pleasantly surprised last Wednesday evening when a number of their friends and neighbors called unexpectedly. The evening was spent with music and social chat. Dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Jessie Hunt, Mrs. Mary Munnell, Mrs. Nancy Blair and their aides. There were 38 people present. Mr. and Mrs. Munnell and family moved last Saturday, taking up their residence on the Pulaski road.

MT. HERMAN NOTES

Mrs. Jennie White of Princeton is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stauffer are moving into the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Scott Munnell this week.

Miss Marian Montgomery is spending this week at the home of Mrs. Viola Boak. Mrs. Isabel Roberts is a guest at the same home.

Mrs. Floyd Blair and daughter, Juanita, Mrs. Irwin Stevenson and son, Glenn, and Mrs. Clair Kennedy of West Moravia were Pittsburgh visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Irwin Stevenson and son, Ashby, and Mrs. Margaret Harrison called on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dick last Sunday afternoon, also on Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spear of New Wilmington.

Library Recommends New Group Of Books

Volumes On Transportation Suggested For 'Book Week' Reading

Book Week at the Free Public library suggests the following books on travel and communication. By the arm-chair pullman you may view transportation developing from the creaking sleds of Pharaoh to the swift airplanes of today, television and the use of radio in flying.

Books recommended:

Butterbaugh, W. E.—Transportation.
Chapple, H. J.—Popular television.
Firth, I. E.—Gateway to radio.
Hathaway, K. A.—Modern radio essentials.
Ireland, Tom—The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence deep waterway to the sea.
Kerr, R. M.—The march of commerce.
Lindbergh, Anne M.—North to the Orient. Shows use of radio in aeronautics.
Muller, C. G.—How they carried the goods.

Thank Offering Service Sunday

Maitland Memorial Primitive Methodist Church Announces Sunday Program

Maitland Memorial Primitive Methodist church, South Mill and Maitland streets, will have its first annual thank-offering services on Sunday, November 22.

A thank-offering of $500 to take care of some of the present and future needs of the church this year will be asked for, according to decision of the trustees sanctioned by the society. To attain this goal the trustees are asking the hearty cooperation of the members and friends of the church.

Rev. J. A. Tinker, pastor, announces the following order of services for the day:

Prayer service in charge of Young People's society, 8:45 a. m.

Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.

Thanksgiving sermon by the pastor, 11 a. m.

Service of song by the choir entitled "Probable Sons" 7:30 p. m.

An impressive story by Amy LeFeuvre with fine music by I. H. Meredith, choir led by Miss Sadie Lewis and organist, Mrs. Ira Blair.

It's True—One Michele Corne erected a momument in Newport, R. I. to the first man to eat a tomato.

Speaking of eating, Tony LaForenz, to whom we referred the other day, downed at one meal two dozen raw eggs, shell and all; a raw unpeeled potato, a lemon, a hunk of pologna, plate of spaghetti, raw pepper sandwich, apples, pears, beer and wine. Then to show his versatility, he ate a box of soda crackers in four minutes without taking a drink.

The word galosh really means a wooden shoe.

Corot paid restauranteurs for his favorite dish, onion soup, with paintings now worth thousands of dollars. Which is a reminder that Millet once had to give six of his classic painting for a pair of shoes.

The Empire State Building is constantly moving! Every building has a pulse; every building in a city vibrates, sometimes as much as 5,000 swings a minute.

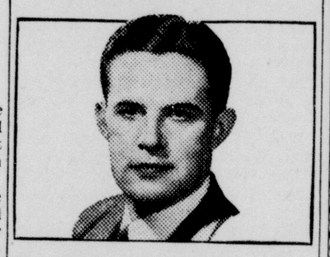
When You Want to Alkalize Stomach Fast



Try This Amazing Fast Way —The "Phillips" Way Millions Are Adopting

On every side today people are being urged to alkalize their stomach. And thus ease symptoms of "acid indigestion," nausea and stomach upsets.

To gain quick alkalization, just do this: Take two teaspoons of PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA 30 minutes after eating. OR — take two Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets.

Relief comes almost at once — usually in a few minutes. Nausea, "gas" — fullness after eating and "acid indigestion" pains leave. You feel like a new person.

Try this way. Get either the liquid "Phillips" or the remarkable, new Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets. Each one equals a teaspoon of the liquid. Only 25¢ a box at all drug stores.

ALSO IN TABLET FORM: Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

survivors, Capper, Norris, Borah, Hiram Johnson and the Senate Republican leader, Senator McNary will think seriously about building a new Republican party before 1940 comes along, with another whirlwind.

WHEN BEER and whisky came back, arm and arm, legally, some said "Farewell to soft drinks, their day is done."

At that time, with prohibition dead, R. W. Woodruff, head of the Coca Cola company, informed this writer that he did not agree with the sad prognostication.

"If you have what the people want,' said he, "and let them know that you have it, you need not worry; there is room for everybody in America."

TUESDAY, Mr. Jones, of "Coca Cola", sent the interesting information that Mr. Woodruff had told the board of directors that his company, in the three months ending last September 30, earned net, with all reserves for taxes, $8,931,315.36 or $2,600,000 more than in 1935.

In consequence of this joyful news the company will celebrate its 50th anniversary this year by giving an extra month's salary to each of its employes, and an extra dividend of two dollars a share to the widely scattered holders of its four million shares of common stock.

It is true, as Mr. Woodruff says, "If you HAVE what the people want, and then let them KNOW that you have it," the rest is simple; but you must HAVE it, and let the people KNOW you have it.

HERR VON OSSIETZKY, locked up for pacifism more than three years ago, and just released from a Berlin hospital, in which he was held prisoner, went through the World War, is 47 years old now, was a leader of the "no-more-war" movement.

His health was undermined by concentration camp hardships, and he is not expected to live long to enjoy his Nobel prize money. He may comfort himself with a line inspired by Milton's blindness, "They also serve who only stand and wait." As for the "no-more-war" movement, that must be patient also.

HARRY L. HOPKINS, head of the Works Progress Administration, predicts that even through 1937 between six and a half and seven and a half million men will remain idle. He thinks the people ought to begin thinking "what they want to do about them".

Mr. Hopkins tells mayors of big cities, assembled in Washington, that these men will be idle even if business continues going up; he says the only solution is to make hours short, wages and public buying power high. Good solution, if it can be done.

RUSSIA OFFICIALLY calls religion "the opium of the people", putting them to sleep, making them obedient to masters, yet Russia forbids production of a comic opera that ridicules religion, lampooning introduction of Christianity into Russia 1,000 years ago. Russia's government says the comic opera belittles o'd Russian heroes.

To ridicule today's Christianity, apparently, is all right, but, old Russian Christianity mixed with Russian heroism, must be respected. The modern Bolshevist government is supposed to represent ancient Russian heroism.

SOY BEANS are going up in price. If you have a farm and the right kind of ground, you might try raising them. However, American soy bean farmers will need plenty of tariff protection, from Asia, and later, from Ethiopia, where much soil is ideal for soy bean culture.

Rich soil, free for the taking, and cheap Ethiopian labor will make Mussolini a difficult soy bean competitor.

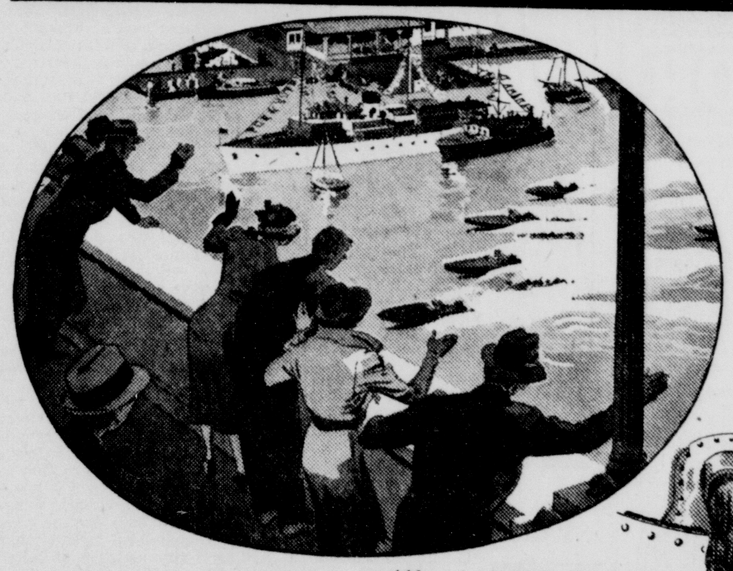
Learn the amazing benefits of GULFPRIDE
THE WORLD'S FINEST MOTOR OIL

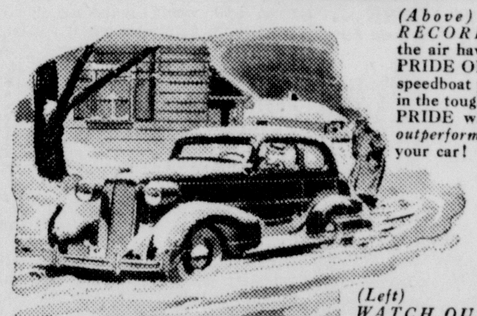


WHY is it that no other motor oil in all the world can deliver the performance of GULFPRIDE OIL?

Because only GULFPRIDE starts from the finest Pennsylvania crudes . . . is refined to the same point as other fine motor oils . . . and is then further refined by Gulf's exclusive Alchlor process!

This process is the most efficient ever developed—the fruit of 15 years' research by Gulf scientists—men who stand behind every Gulf product.

Read the facts on this page. Then drive into any Gulf dealer's—and replace your old summer-worn oil with WINTER GULFPRIDE!



(Above)—MANY WORLD'S RECORDS on land, sea, and in the air have been set with GULFPRIDE OIL. Racing drivers, fliers, speedboat pilots swear by it. Proved in the toughest competition, GULFPRIDE will outwear, outlast, and outperform any oil you ever used in your car!

THE ALCHLOR PROCESS removes all sludge and residue. Proof: we took 6 of the finest Pennsylvania oils we could buy and put them through the Alchlor process. It removed 20% waste from already highly refined oils! Be wise—get GULFPRIDE—the only oil that has this head start.

(Left)
WATCH OUT FOR WINTER! Don't let it nip your car! Drain out heavy summer oil and refill with WINTER GULFPRIDE. This oil far exceeds all U. S. Government specifications for winter motor oil. It's de-waxed twice to flow freely below zero. Starts quickly. Saves motor and battery. Change now!

Government To Assist Alaska

Will Not Go Into Strikebreaking Business, However, Secretary Ickes Says

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Secretary of Interior Ickes today declared government efforts to assist the people of Alaska, threatened with starvation because of the maritime strike, will be made "without going into the strikebreaking business".

Col. O. F. Ohlson, general manager of the Alaska railroad, which is supervised by the interior department, will leave by plane at 5 p. m. today for Seattle to advertise for bids for chartering private ships to carry needed food and fuel to Alaska, and to endeavor to reach an agreement with the striking longshoremen and seamen.

"We always try to work with all parties concerned," Ickes said. "We hope to be able to work out an agreement satisfactory to all parties. Two years ago, striking maritime workers gave us an exemption to ship supplies and necessities.

"We are going to try to feed the people up there to keep them from starving without going into the strikebreaking business."

Asked if the government planned to meet the demands of the union and charter private ships, Ickes replied:

"We haven't any bottoms (ships) yet."

ALLOCATE $200,000

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—An allotment of $200,000 for additional surveys on the Connecticut and Susquehanna river basins was approved today by the War Department. The fund was granted to supplement earlier appropriations in connection with the program of flood control authorized by the last congress. The surveys will be made along the basins of the two rivers in Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, New York, Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Three Enter Pleas In Robbery Cases

James Ross, 19, of 19 Maitland street, James Zingaro, 17, of 193 South Jefferson street and Charles Toscano, 16, of 716 Mable street, plead guilty to breaking and entering several business places here when given a hearing by Alderman O. H. P. Green yesterday.

The charges were preferred by Police Chief Ralph Criswell. Ross and Zingaro were remanded to jail for December court term in default of bail.

Toscano obtained $500 bail and was allowed his freedom pending court trial.

They were arrested by Patrolman Willis McMullen. Ross and Zingaro were apprehended inside a gas station police report and Toscano was arrested later for acting as a "look-out" at a grocery store robbery.

Mayors Of Large Cities Seek Peace In Labor Dispute

Send Offer To Tampa Convention To Mediate Green-Lewis Controversy

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Thirty-four leading members of the U. S. conference of mayors offered their services today to organized labor for mediation of the controversy within the ranks of the American Federation of Labor over craft-versus-industrial unionsim.

In a telegram to the federation's convention in Tampa, Fla., the mayors appealed to the union leaders to settle all differences. The mayors warned chaos would follow if organized labor set up two conflicting union organizations in the larger cities.

Mayors Florella LaGuardia, of New York City, S. Davis Wilson, of Philadelphia, Edward J. Kelly, of Chicago, Frederick W. Mansfield, of Boston, Angelb J. Rossi, of San Francisco, Harold H. Burton, of Cleveland, and former Mayor John W. Smith, of Detroit, headed the list signing the appeal.

Planning Board Proposes Move

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19. — The State Planning Board announced today its intention to introduce a bill at the 1937 general assembly designed to permit entry of surveyors on private property and to protect land markers.

Meanwhile, Gov. George H. Earle named the following to the board:

Ralph M. Bashore, secretary of labor and industry; Warren Van Dyke, secretary of highways; James F. Bogardus, secretary of forests and waters; Col. J. Hale Steinman, Lancaster; Maj. Henry Hornbostel, Pittsburgh; Otto T. Mallery, Philadelphia, and Dr. Alexander Fleisher, Philadelphia. The board consists of nine members, four of whom are named from among administration heads and five from the state's private citizens.

PLAN TO ASK COURT TO NAME VIEWERS

Council met in the city building this morning and authorized Mayor Charles E. McGrath to present to the court of Lawrence county a petition in which it is alleged that a brick building at South Mercer and Lawrence streets is a public menace. The petition is for the purpose of having the court name viewers.

Y.M.C.A. Plays Big Role In Daily Life Of City

For almost a half century the Young Men's Christian Association, one of the eight important Community Chest agencies, has been serving New Castle's men and boys.

Through 1937, if the chest drive for $60,370 gets the support it deserves, its service will be just as notable as it has in the 50 years past.

Both members and non-members are welcome at the "Y" and all organizations well know that its rooms are always open for meetings.

Its Activities Recited.

Some of the recent activities of the association were:

Four hundred and ninety boys, between the ages of 10 and 16, joined the "free swimming class" at the "Y" which is a special feature conducted once every year. The total attendance in the classes was 2,200. The instruction continued 10 days—and in that time 92 boys were taught to swim over 50 feet.

In underprivileged boys' work these figures were reported:

Six underprivileged boys' clubs.

Two hundred and twenty-five boys enrolled.

Regular gym and pool advantages given to these boys.

Attendance to classes for underprivileged boys, 1836 boys.

Three classes held weekly for this type of boy.

Community and social service—

Organizations outside the Y. M. C. A. used the meeting rooms of the "Y" 211 times during the past year.

Swimming pool given to the scouts once per week for tests.

Physical department organized a church mushball league for churches of the city.

Lobby and building used by more than 300 people daily.

Club work for community and schools—

Seven Hi-Y boys' clubs organized in the senior high school and junior high schools.

Six young men's culbs organized from community of New Castle.

Membership Services.

Services to the members who pay reasonable membership rate:

Physical department which is active with over 40 scheduled activities, classes and recreational facilities for both men and boys weekly.

Attendance in the physical department activities and classes during the year, 37,189 men and boys.

Attendance in the boys' department game and social room during the year, 18,456 boys.

Attendance in Bible study classes, 986 boys.

Then, besides the city activity, 184 boys—58 of them underprivileged youths from New Castle—enjoyed a total of 364 boy weeks at Camp Fred L. Rentz, the New New Castle Y. M. camp out along Slippery Rock creek.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Plan Christmas Celebration In Seventh Ward

Civic Club To Sponsor Christmas Celebration In Ward On December 21

At a meeting of the local merchants and members of the Civic club, held on Wednesday in the offices of H. G. Coates, it was decided to have a Christmas celebration and community program in the seventh ward on the night of December 21.

A large tree will be erected in the park and will be decorated in true Christmas style. The streets of the ward will also be decorated and lighted in the Yuletide spirit.

Charles Dungan, Jr., and Arthur Bruno were appointed to take charge of a benefit show to be given on December 14 and 15. Another meeting will be held on Friday at 1:30 o'clock in the offices of H. G. Coates for the purpose of furthering plans.

Plan Thanksgiving Service At Meeting

Christian, Presbyterian And Methodist Churches To Have Union Services On Thanksgiving

On Thanksgiving morning the Christian, Presbyterian and Methodist churches of the ward will gather together as in former years for a union service.

At a meeting of the pastors held last evening, it was decided to hold the services in the Methodist church due to the fact that the Christian church is now being redecorated.

The services will begin promptly at 10 a. m., with Rev. C. H. Hagadorn presiding, Rev. D. C. Schneebly will deliver the sermon and Rev. Milton E. Shearer will assist. A union choir, under the direction of Miss Jane Kyle, will furnish the music. Mrs. Alice McClure will preside at the organ.

Mahoning To Play Shenango

At a post season game on Saturday, the Mahoning school football team will meet with Shenango high for a game that promises to be one of the most thrilling of this season.

Both teams are in fine shape and make a forecast of the results of the game difficult, but one thing is certain the game will be very close.

AUXILIARY MEETS TONIGHT

Mrs. M. R. Olmstead will entertain members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Order of Railroad Conductors, at a social meeting this evening in her home on Fifth street.

W. A. G. CLUB

Members of the W. A. G. club will be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. W. R. Bollinger on West Madison avenue.

L. S. C. BOOK CLUB

Mrs. George Meyer will entertain associates of the L. S. C. Book club, Friday, at her home on West Madison avenue.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mary Ronan of West Madison avenue is making an extended trip through Florida and other southern states.

New Castle Doctors At District Session

A group of New Castle physicians participated in the annual meeting of the Tenth Councillor district of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania held yesterday in Pittsburgh.

Attending were Doctors John Foster, W. A. Womer, Rosella Popp, and Mary J. Baker. The first two participated as representatives of the Lawrence County Medical society.

A clinic session occupied the morning hours of the doctors while at noon lunch was server and in the evening a dinner featured. After the dinner came another discussion at Hotel Schenley opened to the public.

Rudy Vallee Is Grieving Today

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19—"I still love her—I've always loved her."

So said the heart-broken Rudy Vallee today as he tried to hide his grief over the death of his divorced wife, Fay Webb Vallee, in Santa Monica, Cal.

Several times I asked her to come back to me—but she refused," said Vallee.

He and Fay were divorced last May. They had married in 1931.

Small Fires Are Reported In City

Damage Is Light In Series Of Blazes Wednesday Afternoon And This Morning

Firemen answered a half dozen alarms Wednesday afternoon and this morning, none of which were for fires of any consequence.

Early Wednesday afternoon, they were called to the home of Sam Charley, 329 East Long avenue, where vapor was escaping from a new heating system, but there was no damage.

At 1:15 p. m. they were called to the corner of Maryland avenue and Butler avenue, where gasoline ran over in the tank of the truck of Sanford R. Carse, Jr., of Pittsburgh, and ignited from the hot exhaust pipes. The blazing gasoline set fire to the cab of the truck. The damage was not extensive.

At 3:10 p. m. an alarm from box 25, summoned them to 461 Neshannock avenue, where a man had been using a blow torch and put the hot torch down on a pile of papers, setting fire to the paper and scorching the wall. There was only slight damage done.

At 6:55 o'clock last evening, they were summoned to 1509 Pennsylvania avenue, where some boys had a bonfire, which was extinguished with a pail of water.

At 8:45 o'clock this morning, an alarm from box 21 summoned firemen to North Mercer street, near Lincoln avenue, where there was a fire around the radiator of the car of Laura E. Bell, of 1713 Pennsylvania avenue. The damage was slight.

BIDS ARE OPENED FOR ACCOUNTING MACHINE

Four bids for a budget accounting machine were opened by the county commissioners this morning. The Burroughs Adding Machine Company presented a bid of $1,557; National Cash Register Company, $1,673.51 less five per cent; Remington Rand $1,640, and Underwood Elliott Fisher, $1,460. As there was considerable explanation regarding the work that would be done by the different machines, the county commissioners reserved the letting of the contract until next month. The machine is desired by the County Controller Frank W. Hill.

FLUSH KIDNEYS OF POISONS AND STOP GETTING UP NIGHTS

Live a Healthier, Happier, Longer Life

Thousands of men and women wonder why backache bothers them—why they have to visit the bathroom often at night—why flow is scanty and sometimes smarts and burns.

Any one of these symptoms means that your kidneys and bladder need attention now before these minor symptoms develop into serious trouble.

To flush out waste poisons and acid from kidneys, soothe your irritated bladder and put healthy activity into them, get a 35-cent package of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Capsules and take as directed.

This harmless, tried and true medicine always works—you'll feel better in a few days, as the supremely effective diuretic and kidney stimulant drives excess uric acid from the body which is often the aggravation of joint agony, sciatica and neuritis.

But be sure and get GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules—the original and genuine—right from Haarlem in Holland. All good things are imitated.

Germany, Italy And Japan May Sign Pact Against Communism

By PIERRE J. HUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1936, by International News Service)

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—A far-reaching agreement binding Germany, Italy and Japan in a united front against Communism embracing Europe and the Far East may be revealed here shortly, International News Service learned today.

Recent dispatches from Shanghai told of a purported military alliance between Germany and Japan, admittedly directed against the Soviet Union.

Existence of or at least negotiations for such a pact is expected to be disclosed officially, as well as a hitherto unsuspected agreement aligning the rightist nations of Europe and the Far East against the forces of Communism.

Official quarters maintained a tight-lipped silence, but usually authoritative sources intimated to this correspondent that some announcement of great importance may be forthcoming within the next few days.

From the few available intimations regarding the situation, the agreement may not prove to be specific in its details, but rather a general declaration against Communism.

Extension of German-Manchukuoan trade may also be involved, with the military angle involved through exchange of Japanese raw materials for German machinery, arms and ammunition.

Possibilities of some such military arrangement were strengthened by the fact Hitler early this week conferred with German military leaders. The question of closer cooperation between German and Japanese intelligence officers was believed discussed.

Local Lutherans Plan To Attend

Head Of United Lutheran Church In America To Be Chief Speaker At Rochester

A series of unusual meetings of interest to the Lutherans of the Pittsburgh Synod area are being held this week for the purpose of "stimulating the individual and congregational interest in our kingdom enterprises". The representatives of the Lutheran churches of the New Castle area have received a personal invitation from the Rev. H. H. Bagger, D. D., president of the Pittsburgh Synod of the United Lutheran church in America, to meet at Grace Lutheran church, Rochester, Pa., on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. H. Reed Schepper, pastor.

The chief speaker of the evening will be the Rev. Frederick H. Knubel, D. D., LLD., president of the United Lutheran church in America. Dr. Knubel has been president since the United church was formed in 1918, when three of the largest Lutheran bodies in America united

At the recent meeting of this branch of the church in Columbus, O., Dr. Knubel was re-elected almost unanimously on the first ballot, and so began his 19th year under very favorable circumstances. He completed 40 years in the ministry last month, of which all but the time spent in study abroad and traveling throughout the church as its head he spent in the New York area. He is vice chairman of the World Lutheran convention of 82,000,000 souls. This is the first time that the members of the congregations of the Pittsburgh Synod have had an opportunity to meet the head of the church in the intimacy of a comparatively small gathering, especially so when one considers that the United Lutheran church numbers more than a million and a half of souls in America.

There are two sectional meetings of this character on the territory of the West conference, of which Rev A. M. Stump of St. Paul's Lutheran church of New Castle is the president, and over which he will preside, the other meeting being in Grace Lutheran church of Butler, Pa., on Thursday evening, Nov. 19.

ST. PAUL'S BAPTIST

Friday evening a homecoming for members and friends of St. Paul's Baptist church will be observed with Mrs. Nelson presiding as the hostess in charge. District missionary, Rev. M. J. Banks of the Eastern Ohio Association, will speak Sunday morning and at the evening services also.

t 3 p. m. on this date, an interesting program will be given as follows: Music by the junior choir with Mrs. C. Engs in charge. Scripture lesson in charge of the Rev. P. B. Jones. Prayer, W. W. Mosley; song by the choir; reading by Alfredia Phillips; solo by Mrs. Irene Ellis; paper by Mrs. Bessie Jelk; solo by Mrs. W. P. Dockry; reading by Charles Stanton; trip, Mrs. Katie Quary and daughters; talk by Bessie Brown, secretary of the Elm Street Y. W. C. A. center; solo by E. Walker.

In the program, the various states will be represented by: Mrs. Annie Kelly, New York; Mrs. Nelson, North Carolina; Mrs. Helen Mosley, Maryland; Mrs. Augusto Hambrick, Tennessee; Mrs. Estella Campbell, Alabama; Mrs. Mattie Stephenson, Missouri; Mrs. Willie Morgan, California; Misses Jean Morgan, Georgia; Mrs. Emma Boyd, Michigan; Mrs. Geraldine Nelson, Ohio; Bessie Lee, Illinois; Mrs. Aleen Smith, Virginia; Mrs. R. E. Adams, Roberson, West Virginia; Mrs. Helen Miller, South Carolina; Mrs. Blanche Dillard, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Princello Gray, Texas. The crowning of the queen and presentation will be in charge of the Rev. Banks.

Attendants will be Mrs. Blanche Adams and Ray Hambrick, Clifford Connors and Albert Knight, Jr.

SOUTH SIDE PRAYER BAND

Mrs. Marie Maddox of 320 Mahoning avenue will receive the South Side Prayer Band members in her home Friday at 7:30 o'clock. Miss Tanzie Wright will be in charge of the meeting.

Condemn "Rank And File" Strikes

Seamen's Strike On Eastern Coast Is Condemned By A. F. Of L.

(International News Service)

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 19.—The American Federation of Labor today formally adopted a resolution condemning the current so-called rank-and-file strikes of seamen on the eastern seaboard in sympathy with the west coast ship-labor troubles.

There was little debate on the resolution, and only a few noes echoed through the hall when Matthew Woll, chairman of the A. F. of L resolutions committee, submitted a favorable report on the measure and asked its adoption.

The resolutions committee made the resolution the subject of a special report, in order to speed through its adoption by the labor congress meeting here, and this report marked completion of its first piece of formal business

To Ask Indictment Of Robber Trio

Indications are that city police authorities, who swore to warrants charging Joseph Nosic, George Popa and Wilson Boni with armed robbery will go before the grand jury and ask indictments so that detainers can be lodged against the trio after they serve time, if convicted, at Canton, for robberies they are alleged to have staged there. The trio robbed the bus station and New Castle Drug store here and also the Repman confectionery at Wampum.

TO SELECT SITE FOR NATIONAL GRANGE SESSION

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 19.—Selection of a site for the 1937 national Grange meeting was left to the executive committee by the Grange meeting here today.

Invitations were extended by Texas, Pennsylvania and Colorado, but because of complications in possible expenses and Grange membership distribution, the convention voted to allow the executive committee to make the decision after study.

Birds Do Not Always Perch Safely On Wires

Birds in many cases can walk safely on live wires. However, in some other instances they cannot without suffering death. One of the latter cases was discovered recently in Sharon and when the owl, for such the bird happened to be, even though they are called "wise", not only suffered misfortune but also was the cause of interrupting service in that district. The same thing is presumed to have caused a mysterious interruption to New Castle's business district and North Hill recently. A picture of the owl astride, but dead, on the wire in Sharon is contained in the Penn Power News.

The magazine report anent the occurrence follows:

"As a power company employe, you are probably asked, on an average of two or three times a year perhaps, why birds can sit on a power line, chirping merrily and utterly oblivious of the deadly voltage on the "live" wire beneath their feet. Why aren't they electrocuted?

"The answer is, they are, under certain circumstances. But, whether it's fish, bird or beast the high voltage must go through its body to put in its deadly work. A bird, or a man for that matter (if he's an acrobat or tight-rope walker) can perch himself on a wire and live through the experience provided he doesn't get his feet, wings or other appendage tangled up with another wire or with an object that makes contact with the ground. When that happens, a flash terminates the adventure very abruptly, and incidentally will probably put out the lights in homes, offices or factories.

'The owl, or rather its badly burned carcass, was found at the base of a steel tower carrying a 66,000 volt line near Sharon, shortly after an interruption had occurred. The owl ventured a little too close to the big insulator, the high voltage flashed over, killed the owl, broke several "skirts" on the insulator and interrupted service on the line. The same thing is presumed to have caused a mysterious interruption to New Castle's business district and north side on a recent afternoon. A careful patrol of the line after the interruption failed to disclose any reason for the trouble; the line had reclosed after a minute's outage, and had held. But the next day a mail carrier who had been traveling the highway along the line at the time of the interruption, reported that he had seen a flash at one of the poles. Then the secret was out, for at the base of the pole was a dead crow, just a curious bird that was not satisfied with a perch in the middle of a span, and could not overcome his curiosity as to the nature of the brown insulator.

"So that's another way for birds to get killed and line superintendents to get gray."

Jose Antonio Primo De Rivera Sentenced To Death For Being Fascist

(International News Service)

ALICANTE, Spain, Nov. 19.—Speedy execution today was predicted for Jose Antonio Primo De Rivera, son of the former Spanish dictator, who was sentenced to death as a Fascist by a "people's tribunal."

His brother, Miguel, was sentenced to 30 years imprisonment and Miguel's wife to six years.

Pay Last Respects To Noted Singer

Mme. Schumann-Heink To Be Buried With Military Service On Friday

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19.—In a severely simple black silk dress, surrounded by great heaps of the flowers she loved so well, Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink lay in a funeral parlor here today, awaiting a soldier's burial.

The famous operatic concert contralto, who took pride in being "the adopted mother of the doughboys," had a faint, wistful smile on her peaceful features as friends gathered for a last, quiet farewell before the doors were to be opened for the hundreds, perhaps thousands of her admirers.

Between 8 a. m. and 9 p. m. today the public was invited to pay its last respects to the noted singer, and then the body was to be taken to the clubhouse of Hollywood Post No. 43, American Legion, for a military funeral at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

More than 1,000 telegrams of condolence from all parts of the world poured into the hilltop home in Hollywood where Mme Schumann-Heink died Tuesday evening at the age of 75 following a series of hemorrhages resulting from a blood ailment.

Young Roosevelt And Girl Friend To Attend Game

(International News Service)

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 19.—While his fiancee, Miss Ethel Du Pont, visited friends in Dover, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., explained to Harvard classmates today the romantic reasons that caused him to overstay his leave of absence from school.

Arriving with the president's son last night by airplane, Miss DuPont reiterated they will be married next June but stated no definite date has been set. They will attend the Harvard-Yale football game at New Haven Saturday.

Report Increase In Employment

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—The number of wage earners on the the rolls of Pennsylvania factories increased over one per cent and wage disbursements as well as employe-hours actually worked registered gains of about 6 per cent from the middle of September to the middle of October, according to indexes compiled by the Federal Reserve bank of Philadelphia from reports received from 2,275 manufacturing plants employing about 510,700 workers whose payroll averaged $12,182,000 a week.

The increase in employment represented the usual seasonal change that occurs in the period, while in the case of wage payments and working time the gain was somewhat larger than customary.

The only time some people try to be angels is when they're driving a car.

Wage Agreement Signed By Workers At Vandergrift, Pa.

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19.—Signing of the corporation's sliding scale wage agreement by workers at the Vandergrift works of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation was announced today.

Only three plants of the corporation—Edgar Thomson at Braddock, Duquesne and Farrell-Mercer, employing roughly 12,000 workers—have now not signed the wage contract which became effective November 16 with a ten per cent pay boost.

Under a corporation ruling, however, workers at these plants also get the raise even though they have not signed the wage agreement.

Sixteen plants, employing approximately 40,000 men, have signed the contract.

Strikers May Move Food To Alaskan Ports

Alaska Faces Serious Food Shortage As Result Of Pacific Maritime Strike

PRIVATE SHIPS TO BE CHARTERED

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Unless an official request is received from the interior department of the federal government, no decision will be made by striking maritime workers on the west coast to man ships with emergency supplies for Alaskan ports, facing a serious food shortage.

This was made known here today following a telephone call from Jack Engstrom, spokesman for the joint strike committee in Seattle from which port the ships would sail to Alaskan waters.

Roosevelt Orders.

Assistant Secretary of Labor Edward F. McGrady received official notice late yesterday from Washington that the president had issued an executive order to prevent a food shortage in Alaska.

The order instructed the government-owned Alaska railroad to take over and operate both government and privately-owned vessels to transport sufficient supplies for the Alaskan territory.

Officials of the interior department said there were no suitable ships available at present either in the army, navy or shipping board, to meet the requirements.

The department then announced that bids will be advertised within a few days for chartering private ships to carry the needed food and fuel from Seattle to Alaska.

Hearing Friday For Paul Zlunko

Man Alleged To Have Been In Bus Terminal Robbery To Get Hearing

Captain of City Detectives Ray Showalter and State Policeman Harry Stinnett have returned from Akron and Canton where they investigated holdups at the bus terminal and New Castle drug store of this city and Repman confectionery at Wampum.

John Nosic, arrested with George Popa at Canton, was said to have made a written confession stating that they and Wilson Boni, the latter yet at large, robbed the three places.

Hearing of charges against Paul Zlunko, identified by witnesses as one of the bus terminal robbers, will be held before Squire O. H. P. Green on Friday.

Nosic claims that he, Popa and Boni, all three from Canton, were with him in the bus terminal "job". However, police say, it is reported there is an acquaintanceship between some of the trio and Zlunko, who resides in Youngstown.

In view of this, Chief of Police Ralph Criswell said police are not yet satisfied he had no hand in the robbery and are investigating that holdup thoroughly.

Service Is Held At St. John's Church

Two Missionary Societies Sponsor Thankoffering Program Last Night

An appreciative audience assembled in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church on East North street last night when the annual thank offering service of the Women's Missionary society and the Catherine Von Bora Missionary society was observed.

The Rev. Daniel Bravin, superintendent of a Jewish mission in Pittsburgh, presented a series of pictures depicting the religious life of the Jews. His address was preceded by a devotional period led by Miss Mary Riffer, assisted by Mrs. Milo Steele, president of the Catherine Von Bora society.

A feature of the service was the solo sung by Mrs. Ben Agnew. She was accompanied by Miss Lena Richards.

A social period followed the service with Mrs. William Mulcahy, Mrs. John Baer and Mrs. Emory Wolf in charge, aided by members of the two missionary organizations.

NO CHANGE IN CONDITION OF FAMOUS WRITER

(International News Service)

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Nov. 19.—After a brief rally yesterday, the condition of George Ade, famed Hoosier author and humorist, was reported unchanged by attending physicians early today. Oxygen was still being administered.

The 70-year-old writer was stricken with a critical attack of lung hypostasis and heart trouble shortly after his arrival here from Indiana five days ago.

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Believe Changes In Cabinet Near

Washington Gossip Indicates That Several Changes Are Contemplated

SEVERAL HAVE LACKED ABILITY

Central Press
Washington Bureau
602 Times-Herald Bldg.
By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Washington expects to see President Roosevelt's cabinet about three-fifths made over soon after the beginning of his second term.

Most certain to retain his post is Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

The Tennesseean is recognized as having been the administration's most valuable single asset in the last two years and especially during the campaign period. That is all the more remarkable considering that his earlier influence at the executive mansion was generally regarded as negligible. If ever a statesman made good on sheer merit, in the face of tremendous difficulties, Hull did.

MORGENTHAU

Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., presumably will hold over if he chooses to do so. There is no particular reason to believe that he will not so choose. Still, one hears the suggestion made that maybe he will not, because of private business interests. The best guess, however, is that he will remain.

There was much gossip for a while that the administration wanted to unload Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes, because of his constant friction with Federal Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins, whose judgment the White House seemed to rate above Ickes'—does yet, possibly. But Ickes proved to be an extraordinarily effective New Deal election campaigner; it would be politically very poor form to retire him from the cabinet as a sequel to it.

And Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace appears to be pretty solid in his department. Wallace perhaps is more a theorist than a practical farmer, but he is a brilliant theorist and practical farmers apparently like his theory.

Hull, Morgenthau, Ickes and Wallace?

They look like permanencies.

Woodring, Cummings, Farley, Swanson, Roper and Frances Perkins?

STOP-GAPS

Woodring is only acting secretary of war, since the recent death of Secretary George H. Dern, in office. He already could have been appointed to the regular secretaryship if that had been the intention. One would surmise that that ISN'T the intention.

Cummings never was anything except a stop-gap appointee to the attorney generalship. The late Senator Thomas J. Walsh was to have had the position, but died before the Roosevelt administration came into power. Cummings, then slated for the governor generalship of the Philippines, got the place "temporarily," it was stated. His tenure did not prove to be so temporary. It continues to date. Cummings hasn't been such a brilliant attorney general, either. What the supreme court has done to his cases is a-plenty. Chief G-man J. Edgar Hoover has been more prominent than he.

Not that Hoover is advertised for the attorney generalship.

But Cummings again is mentioned for the Philippines—as high commissioner to the new commonwealth, a post relinquished by Governor-Elect Frank Murphy of Michigan. That seems to be a hint that Cummings has outlived his usefulness in the justice department.

SWANSON, FARLEY RESIGNING?

The health of Secretary of the Navy Swanson is failing; his resignation on that ground is anticipated.

James A. Farley's usefulness as a combined campaign manager and cabinet officer is about ended. He has to quit as one or the other, and his postmaster generalship is the likeliest of his two activities to be surrendered.

Roper, with his proposed 15 to 20-million dollar unemployment census, wants to become arbiter between capital and labor—a vastly more important stunt than the secretaryship of commerce.

As for Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins?—her department hasn't accomplished much in the last four years.

Her prime "trouble shooter," Edward F. McGrady, is spoken of as her logical successor. Also Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York is mentioned for the job.

Oh, my! If Fiorello H. La Guardia were to be pitched into the ring against Daniel C. Roper!

Seventeen Cases Of Contagion Here

Joe Holsinger, 9 East Wallace avenue; chickenpox.

Ann Green, 8, 222 Boyles avenue; chickenpox.

Robert Fulton, 6, 315 West Washington street; chickenpox.

Sam Nuzzo, 6, 5 North Wayne avenue; chickenpox.

Mary Pelosi, 6, 203 South Ashland avenue; chickenpox.

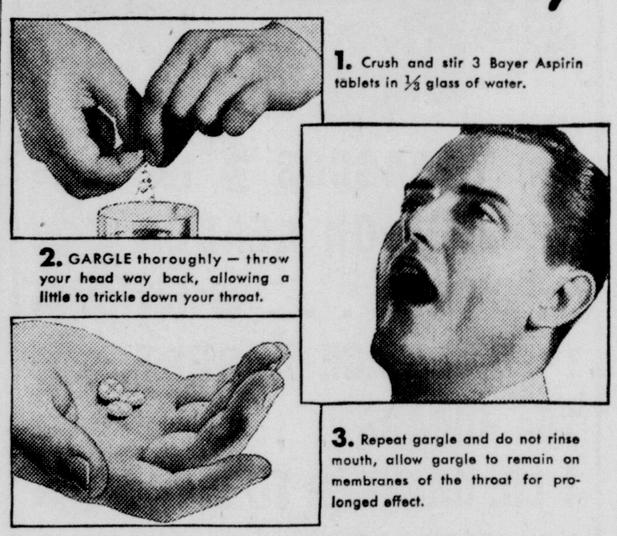
Constance Pittochi, 6, 217 South Cedar street; chickenpox.

Peter Biondi, 809 South Jefferson street; whooping cough.

Danny Nocera, 6, 312 North Liberty street; chickenpox.

Betty, Dale and Emma Getting, 8, 2 and 5, 4 East Cherry street; whooping cough.

Sore Throat Pains
DUE TO COLDS
Eased Instantly



Just Gargle This Way with Bayer Aspirin

Here is the most amazing way to ease the pains of rawness of sore throat resulting from a cold we know you have ever tried.

Crush and dissolve three genuine BAYER ASPIRIN tablets in one-third glass of water. Then gargle with this mixture twice, holding your head well back.

This medicinal gargle will act almost like a local anesthetic on the sore, irritated membrane of your throat. Pain eases almost instantly; rawness is relieved.

Countless thousands now use this way to ease sore throat. Your doctor, we are sure, will approve it. And you will say it is marvelous.

Get the real BAYER ASPIRIN at your druggist's by asking for it by its full name — not by the name "aspirin" alone.

Edward Drebert Named Honor Man In Navy

High Honor Conferred On Local Youth Ir United States Naval Service

Edward Leonard Drebert, formerly of the Butler road, has just been designated as Honor Man in the United States Naval Service. Drebert enlisted in the navy through the local office, April 8, of this year, and this distinction was conferred upon him as the one who throughout twelve weeks of training best exemplified attention to dtuy, aptitude for training, and was a good influence upon his shipmates.

Edward L. Drebert

As is the case for many of the finest men in the service, the navy now stands for him in place of both father and mother, his parents having both died when he was very young. He attended school at the Zelienople Lutheran Orphans' Home in Zelienople, and later moved to New Castle where he was employed for a number of years by farmers on the Butler road, as a farm hand.

Drebert is now on a furlough from the service and when he returns he will be admitted to the Machinist's school at Hampton Roads, Va. He will be promoted to the position of Machinest's Mate at the end of this course at Hampton.

This honor is bestowed upon very few men in the navy, and it is quite an honor for this local youth to be named as Honor Man, he being an orphan has always had to work hard for his rights in the world.

Elyria Clergyman Speaking Tonight At Calvary Church

Dr. R. E. Neighbour, prominent pastor of the First Baptist church of Elyria, O., and a nationally known Bible teacher and author, will be the guest speaker at the special evangelistic service to be held in the Calvary Presbyterian church, East New Castle, tonight at 7:30, the Rev. R. J. Fredericks, Calvary pastor, announced today.

A throng is expected to hear Dr. Neighbour. He has spoken here before.

Featuring the evening service will be the special musical numbers which the Burroughs trio of the First Baptist church of Butler will sing.

Interest Manifest In Negro History

Interest is beginning to be manifest in the courses in Negro history now being offered by the Adult Education Program of the WPA. The classes meet for a two-hour period once a week. The first hour is usually spent in a discussion of present Negro problems as they are set forth in the current Negro periodicals. In the second hour the facts of Negro history are presented from historians of both races.

The classes meet on Wednesday at the Linco'n-Garfield school at 7:30 p. m. Another class has been organized which meets on Friday evening at 7:30 in the Elm Street Y. W. C. A. A cordial invitation is extended to you to join either of these classes.

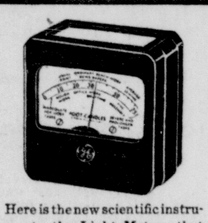
BURDEN ON BUSINESS MAY DRIVE IT AWAY

BUTLER, Nov. 19.—The danger of business concerns leaving the state of Pennsylvania unless there is some letup in state levies on corporations, was voiced by S. S. Riddle of Harrisburg, a member of the State Chamber of Commerce staff, at a dinner of local civic leaders. "We want to know what business men are thinking on pending measures," Riddle said.

Very striking is a black crepe dress with a vivid green slide fastener from neck to hemline. Slide fastener trimming is also used for sleeve decoration. A hand-blocked neckchief in green and black completes this frock.



Here is the new scientific instrument—the Light Meter—that enables us to measure lighting just as accurately as a thermometer measures temperature.

MEASURED LIGHT
protects young eyes

Young eyes need more light than middle-age eyes. Proper lighting helps them see more easily and without danger of eyestrain.

It is a simple matter today to tell whether your home lighting is adequate for reading, sewing, or studying without eyestrain . . . and so protect your family's eyesight.

That's where a measured lighting check-up comes in. All you have to do is 'phone us, and a lighting advisor will measure the lighting in your home with a Light Meter, free of charge. Make an appointment today and protect your family's eyes with measured light.

Better Prices For Farmers In Dairy Business

Inter-State Milk Producers Co-Operative Maps Out Legislation, For Better Prices

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—Officers of the Inter-State Milk Producers Co-Operative today were mapping a legislative campaign to obtain better prices for dairy farmers.

The group is preparing a lobby at Harrisburg to gain beneficial legislation, Benjamin H. Welty, president, declared at the annual meeting, attended by 300 members from all parts of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, south Jersey and West Virginia.

"Returns on farm products generally are not proportionate to the returns on industrial products," said Welty. "We must be prepared to sponsor and support legislation which will enable co-operatives to serve as they are intended; that is, to permit their members to do collectively what they cannot do as individuals."

W. P. Davis, manager of the New England Dairies, a co-operative group, advocated an amendment to the federal marketing act to provide for government control of milk prices.

MURDER SUSPECT ARRESTED IN OHIO

Man Sought Since June In "Head, Hands" Slaying Taken At Warren

WARREN, O., Nov. 19.—Indiana detectives and Warren police arrested late Wednesday Joseph Poholsky, sought since June in the "head and hands" slaying of Captain Harry R. Miller, retired Cincinnati fire fighter.

The squad arrested Poholsky at the city limits of Warren as he was walking into town from a farm near Cortland, O., where he had been working for the past two days.

Detectives M. K. Stewart and John Barton, of Indiana, said Poholsky had signed a waiver of extradition and would be taken to Indianapolis. Poholsky refused to make a statement.

Would Modernize State Statutes

Margiotti Will Recommend Procedure To Governor Earle For Presentation

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—Viewing Pennsylvania's criminal laws and procedure as antiquated, Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti today had announced he will recommend to Gov. George H. Earle that the 1937 general assembly be given the task of "modernizing" the statutes.

"If the governor approves," said Margiotti, "the next session of the general assembly will be asked to recodify and correlate the state's 76-year-old criminal code and codify its criminal procedure."

Meanwhile, Margiotti announced appointment of three associates to a commission he now heads to study the problems involved. They are Herbert F. Goodrich, dean of the University of Pennsylvania Law School; William E. Mickell, formerly dean and now professor of law at the university, and Edwin R. Keedy, law professor at that institution.

Pennsylvania's first crime conference, conceived by Margiotti to study all the aspects of the problems will be held here November 30 through December 2.

Farmer Suffers Gunshot Wounds

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 19.—Edward Hostetler, 55-year-old Green township farmer, was recovering in the hospital here today after being shot by his 17-year-old son while hunting. Physicians, who found his left leg and thigh badly torn by the blast, feared they might have to amputate.

Another man, James Griffith, 43 of Colver, was treated for pellet wounds in the face.

Says Varicose Veins Can Be Reduced At Home

Prove It At Small Costs

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or bunches, as good advice for home treatment as any friend can give, is to get a prescription known as Moone's Emerald Oil.

Simply ask Eckerd's Drug store or your druggist for an original bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you should notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are no longer burdensome. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that it helps simple swellings due to strain to disappear.

To Grow Crops Without Soil

Farm Near Butler To Be Utilized For Experiments Along That Line

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19—A 53 acre farm near Butler will be utilized as a site for an experimental project to enlarge on successful experiments to grow vegetables without the benefit of soil.

Using nothing but chemically-adulterated water, Dr. Herbert L. Spencer, president of the Pennsylvania College for women, will attempt to improve upon experiments made in California where crops ten times greater than normal were produced in the solution.

Aiding him in the project were Dr. James Mates, principal of the Hazelwood school and Charles Mason, of the Carnegie Library.

First step in making the farm, explained Dr. Spencer will be the construction of long trenches, a foot deep and lined with concrete. Then from a dam, the trenches will be filled with the chemically treated water. Chicken wire spread across the surface will be the resting place for seed potatoes—objects of the first experiment.

Other vegetables will also be tried by Dr. Spencer, since the potato crops have proved successful in California.

Primary effects on the farmer must be considered, if the plan is adaptable to wholesale use, the educator pointed out.

CORN HUSKER DIES OF OVER EXERTION

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 19.—In attempting a cornhusking record in the fields near Masontown, Chauncey Hughes, 69, of West Newton, lost his life. He was found dead with a husk of corn still in his hands.

Hughes dropped dead on the Chester Pierce farm. He was considered one of the fastest corn huskers in Fayette county. The fatal attack is believed to have been superinduced by exertion.

Words of Wisdom

When a thought is too weak to be expressed simply, it is a proof that it should be rejected.—Vauvenargues.

On Court House Hill

County commissioners are securing some releases necessary before starting work on the channel of the Shenango river at the Cherry street bridge. Floods last spring washed the banks of the river so badly that the bridge was threatened. Stone and concrete walls are to be built jointly by the city and county. It will be a WPA project.

Considerable saving to the county will result from efforts of the county commissioners to have fifteen persons who have been committed to Torrance hospital as criminally insane transferred to their care as non-criminal, but in need of detention. These persons were sent to the hospital following informations in which they were charged with minor law infractions. They were then examined by commissions and found to be suffering for mental trouble. In petitions presented to the court by County Solicitor William McElwee, Jr., it was set forth that these persons are not criminally insane. Judge James A. Chambers has approved this finding and transferred them to the custody of the county commissioners. The saving will be in the price paid for the keeping of the prisoners. It costs six dollars per week to keep a criminally insane patient, and three dollars per week for a non-criminal, so that there will be a saving of forty-five dollars per week on the fifteen.

Registration Clerk Thomas Edmunds, has completed a check of the signatures of persons who voted at the recent election, against the district registration files, and finds that there is no evidence of any fraudulent voting. When the voter was given a ballot he was required to sign a card, and it was this card that was checked against his or her signature on the registration card. Names of persons who have failed to vote within two years will be eliminated from the files, as provided in the registration act.

Building construction in the United States is showing a decided increase this year, compared with last, according to data received by Register and Recorder William R. Hanna. The increases ranges from 34 per cent in the west North central states to more than 234 per cent in the east south central. The increases are based on reports received from 758 identical cities having populations of 10,000 and over.

Efforts are being made by the county commissioners, the county treasurer and the county controller, to inaugurate better methods of keeping track of delinquent taxes. This problem gave very little concern previous to 1929, but since that time delinquent taxes have continued to pile up until it now involves considerable clerical work to look after them.

Philip W. Kniskern, president of a mortgage concern in Philadelphia makes the suggestion that municipalities, counties, school boards and townships, adopt methods for the installment payment of taxes, thereby making it easier for the small home owner. "By adopting an installment plan" he says "the government authorities would only be following in the footsteps of business. Industry discovered some time ago that it would increase sales if installment payments were given."

"Several years ago the City of Baltimore, Md., instituted the payment of real estate taxes in installments. As a result it has been found that delinquencies have virtually disappeared. The same is true of the latest financing methods in vogue today, which require the home purchaser to pay his taxes in monthly installments to the financing institution. This action has proven almost as beneficial to the home buyer as the adoption of the single amortization mortgage plan." The suggestion is worth considering.

Payment of taxes by installments would mean a steady and continual flow of income into the treasuries of municipalities. It is a well known fact that many persons who are buying property on installments, do not lay aside the money each month to pay their taxes at the end of the year. The result is that at the end of the year the taxes go on the delinquent list. It is practically certain that if home buyers and property owners had to pay their taxes monthly, as they do their gas, water and other bills, the delinquent tax list today in New Castle and Lawrence county, would not be anything like the huge amounts that stand on the books.

AROUND CITY HALL

Council convened Tuesday and Wednesday as a board of appeals and tax revision and heard objection to assessments made by Assessors Shoaf and Patterson in the fourth ward Not many complaints, in proportion to the size of the ward, were made, it was said The third ward objections will be made next month.

Dr William L. Steen, health officer for the city, said today that "with few exceptions drinking places here are violating the state law by not washing and sterilizing glasses each time they are used." He said this can be corrected by a chlorine rinse. "Common colds and 'flu' are very commonly communicated from one person to another through glasses," the health officer declared.

Charles O'Brien, clerk, is now located in the street department office at the wire nail mill in George street. Most of the street equipment also is stored in the building. Compared to his former quarters O'Brien now has a spacious office. The space in Croton avenue toolhouse formerly used for street equipment now is used for repairing motor equipment.

One member of council said several days ago council has no present intention of raising the tax millage next year....Several police will attend the first 1937 session of the state police school at Hershey. Four officers who did undergo several months training now patrol beats here....Frozen garbage in cans is now a problem for garbage collectors.

NAME NEW PAIR AS U. S. PUBLIC ENEMIES

G-Men Hunting New Desperadoes

Kidnapers Of New Jersey State Police Officer Are Identified

NATION-WIDE HUNT IS NOW UNDER WAY

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Blazing a trail of kidnaping and robbery from the Atlantic seaboard to the middle west, a pair of youthful desperadoes today shared gangland's long-vacated title of public enemy number one.

They are Harry Brunette, 25, and his boyhood companion, Merle "Red" Vandenbush, 29. Possessing extensive criminal records dating back to their adolescent days in Green Bay, Wis., the pair recently drew the g-men to their heels by kidnaping a New Jersey state trooper and by conducting a series of spectacular bank robberies in their native haunts.

Agents On Trail

After identifying the pair as the two gunmen who held up the Citizens bank at Monroe, Wis., early this week, chief g-man Hoover augmented the already large force of agents placed on their trail.

Department of Justice officials indicated they are preparing to post a substantial reward for information leading to the capture of the men from the $25,000 fund appropriated for this purpose.

Hoover is not certain whether Brunette and Vandenbush are leaders of an organized gang. In kidnaping State Trooper William A. Turnbull and during the robbery of the Seymour State bank, at Seymour, Wis., in August, they were aided by a single accomplice. The trooper was kidnaped near Somerville, N. J. when he halted their car for speeding. He said awoman was in the automobile. He was carried across the state line and released near Freemansburg, Pa.

Brunette and Vandenbush started their bank burglaries this summer, after escaping from the London, O., prison farm, to which they had been transferred from the Ohio State Penitentiary. They were serving a five to 15-year prison sentence for assault and attempted robbery.

Tomato Insect Found In County

(Special To The News)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 19—Omitting the fall tomota crop in greenhouses and killing of the insects by the severity of last winter apparently have greatly reduced the number of tomato pin worms in southeastern Pennsylvania, Charles A. Thomas, assitant professor of economic entomology at the Pennsylvania State College, reported today.

This insect was discovered in Chester County in 1931, the first time its appearance east of California was recorded. Since then it has been found in other parts of Chester county, in Delaware county and in Lawrence county.

Plan To Form Colored Band

All colored youths, who play an instrument of any kind and who are interested in belonging to an orchestra are urged to report to the office of the National Youth Administration at 508 Greer building as soon as possible.

Arrangements have been made for space for rehearsals and music will be furnished without charge to all members of the orchestra.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

THEORIZING ON CRIME

Every now and then some governor calls together a group of lawyers, judges, criminologists, sociologists and social workers for a powwow on crime reduction.

Before the meeting we can guess pretty accurately what will be arrived at—the courts are slow and inefficient, the prisons are not scientifically conducted, more effective probation and parole systems are needed, and so on.

Now and then at such a conference, or away from it, some person like Warden Lawes of Sing Sing, fires a broadside at the public schools, charging them with the responsibility for crime. Occasionally some weak voice pipes up and wonders whether or not the home might be a factor.

While I believe the school might do much more for building better citizens out of boys and girls, I do not believe that the schools can hope to do very much by merely working on the child at school.

Perhaps the schools' influence would be keenly felt in a character building program if they worked more closely with the home, winning co-operation.

The child's ethical attitudes and habits are fairly well established before he enters school. Even while he goes to school his basic social attitudes, as a rule, far more than does the school, since in the family are the well-springs of the child's emotions.

Parents Need Education

If a fifth of the $15,000,000,000 spent on crime were used in parent education, we could hope soon to bring up a generation nearly all of whom would be good citizens—if it were the right kind of parent education; if it emphasized the need of training children early to regard the rights of others and to respect authority.

But if all the parents of all the children in North America were to be enrolled in courses for parents and would study in these courses seriously, I doubt whether there would be a great difference in the amount of crime if the prevailing theories promulgated by the typical parent education course were to continue to lead parents to believe their children should not be restrained.

I often wish that one of these conferences on crime would appeal to parent educators who now hold a position so strategic, to prevail upon parents to strive to train their children in the early years in the alphabet of citizenship—proper regard for the rights of others, and respect for authority the lack of which spells crime. And crime conference might indeed make a very notable contribution if it only were to write a resolution begging parent educators to quit making parents believe they should let their children do almost as they please.

Anyway, why waste all our thought, effort and money worrying about the water over the dam? Why not go back to the springs of the social stream? Why not begin with the little children and their parents?

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

A cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation today may lead to serious trouble tomorrow. You can relieve them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified Creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery that aids nature to soothe and heal the infected membranes and to relieve the irritation and inflammation as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled.

Medical authorities have for many years recognized the wonderful effects of Beechwood Creosote for treating coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations. A chemist worked out a special process of blending Creosote with other ingredients so that now in Creomulsion you get a real dose of Beechwood Creosote which is palatable and can even be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children. Thousands of doctors now use Creomulsion in their own families and practice, and druggists rank Creomulsion top because in this genuine, original product you can get a real dose of Creosote so emulsified that it goes to the very seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial troubles, especially those that start with a common cold and hang on and on. Get a bottle of Creomulsion right now from your druggist, use it all up as directed and if you fail to get satisfactory relief, he is authorized to refund every cent of your money. Get Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

Shenango Seniors Will Present Play

"The Panther's Claw" Will Be Given On Tuesday, November 24

Two of the most sinister figures in the underworld, the panther and the spider will be introduced to Shenango Township, Tuesday evening, November 24, when the Senior class of Shenango high presents, "The Panther's Claw." The curtain will rise at 8 o'clock.

Chills which come so fast to make anyone sit on the edge of his chair, gripping suspense and an intensely interesting story are some of the ingredients contained in the formula of "The Panther's Claw." A brilliant cast, headed by Betty Davis, as Norma Tremaine, Henry Bogdan, as Clifton King, Dorothy Hay as Elaine Standish, Howard Weigle, as Jerry; Joe Guinienny, as Jake McCord supported by Elizabeth Koski, Tessie Weresuk, Elnora Shaffer, Flora Mae Houk, Nick Alfreda, James Henderson and Tom Johnston assures the success of this initial dramatic presentation of the school year.

A capacity crowd is expected to be on hand as the curtain goes up at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Irene Lynch Bohmbach, 41, who has been attached to the Boston police department since 1921, finished in a tie for second place in a recent civil service examination for Boston police sergeant. Mrs. Bohmbach competed against 1,018 men.

POTTER TO HAVE INQUEST TONIGHT

Coroner Orville Potter will have an inquest this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the death of Mrs. Minetta Tilen, who was struck and killed by the auto of Homer Pringle, of Cleveland avenue, on Grant street, on the evening of November 8.

Damage by rats to property and produce in the United States amounts to about $200,000,000 annually. Rats affect a larger percentage of the population than any other pest in existence.

NEW WAY TO RELIEVE PILES

The agony and pain caused by piles (hemorrhoids) has at last been brought under scientific control. IRIL suppositories the newest prescription for the relief of soreness, itching, burning and bleeding of this painful ailment, contain a combination of modern medicines which stops all pain within an almost unbelievably few seconds. No narcotics, no harmful drugs. Pain gone and bleeding checked. Doctors who have passed on the formula of these new suppositories, pronounce them ideal for the purpose. Why bother with old-fashioned remedies, when this new, modern, scientific treatment gives such quick, sure relief from the agony and torture that accompanies piles.

IRIL is also made in the form of an ointment for the relief of itching, bleeding and burning of external or protruding piles.

IRIL suppositories, costing only 50¢ and $1.00 a box, and IRIL Ointment at 50¢ a tube are sold by all druggists.

Get Rid of Excess FAT with this SAFE DRUGLESS Treatment

Do you feel as though you have a rubber tire around your stomach? Do your fat arms distress you? Is your face pudgy looking because of surplus flesh? Does that layer of fat across your back and shoulders classify you as "fat and forty"? If so, you'll be interested in WATE-OFF, the pure vegetable tablets for weight reduction. WATE-OFF is guaranteed safe and harmless, and yet is amazingly effective, as testified to by thousands of users, many of whom gratefully report reductions of 5 pounds a week and even more, and with great benefit to their health and general well-being. WATE-OFF is a compound of pure vegetable matter and herbs. It is absolutely free from drugs and so guaranteed. It contains no dinitrophenol or other dangerous drugs—no reducing salts or other harmful laxatives that physic the system and leave the skin loose and flabby. WATE-OFF, on the contrary, enables you to take off weight—gently—gradually—without the slightest harm or danger. Instructions say: Take 3 or 4 tablets a day, before meals, then eat your hearty fill. "Results," say users, "are simply amazing." Unsightly fat seems to melt away like magic, leaving no saggy, flabby skin or broken-down tissue. You've seen WATE-OFF advertised in Pictorial Review, Physical Culture and other leading magazines at $2.45. Now we offer it to you for only $1.19 with the understanding that if you are not satisfied with the results you have the privilege of returning the empty carton and we will return your money.

My New York
By James Aswell

Copyright, 1936, Central Press Association

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Interview With a Fashionable Physician:

Q. I notice your furnishings are the most unpretentious on Park Avenue. Yet I hear you have the richest practice and, if you don't mind my saying so, make the most money of any society doctor.

A. I keep my ante-room a little shabby on purpose. It works two ways. The patients believe I am so absorbed in therapy that I can't be bothered with worldly externals, mere show. Also when it comes time to pay their bills they remember the frayed carpet in the reception hall and send the money promptly, on the theory that I need it.

Q. You specialize in nervous disorders. Did you always take an interest in these maladies, from your interne days?

A. I wanted to be a surgeon. But I got two or three rich patients and they introduced me to their friends—or rather brought their friends to see me. First thing I knew I was treating almost nothing but nervous disorders; they have been fashionable for years along Park Avenue.

Q. But tell me the truth about fees. You have written text-books and your standing in the profession is ace-high. How is it that you are interested enough in money to charge $25,000 for attendance in illness—even though the patient is worth millions?

A. If I didn't, the word would get around that I was slipping. Also, it is necessary to charge huge fees and then make an "adjustment"—which sometimes brings the bill down to $2,500.

Q. But how do you spend your income? You have only a year-be-fore-last, medium-priced car and you don't entertain or run a yacht.

A. I turn over most of my income to about a dozen different hospitals for children all over the country. That's my hobby. I get a bigger kick out of giving money to those hospitals than another man would out of golf or a yacht. Last year I gave away so much that I had to borrow to pay my expenses for the year.

Q. But that seems admirable. You talk as if it were a weakness.

A. It is a weakness. My dear young man, nobody does anything from motives which are purely detached and lofty. That is, not unless he is insane. If you met a man absolutely unselfish and utterly philanthropic you wouldn't be able to tolerate his company even long enough for the keeper to come get him. I get a kick out of giving my money to children's hospitals because I wanted to be a pediatrist, a baby doctor, myself—in a small mining town. But if I had, I wouldn't have made enough money to gratify my hobby. So here I am.

Q. What about the strain of living in New York? You find many examples of its effects in your practice?

A. That's one of those glib phrases that don't mean very much. The human body is meant to be subjected to constant strain. It is an adapting and a competitive organism. If the pressure relaxes the man disintegrates. The strain of living in New York is no greater than the strain of living in Paris or South Bend or Arabia, and men don't live any "faster" here than they do elsewhere. I'm sorry I can't tell you what you want to hear.

Q. But isn't it true that nerve specialists get more cases of nervous breakdown in New York than in small towns, figured on a population basis?

A. In the first place, I very much doubt that there is any such thing as a "nervous breakdown." I have never seen a case I was sure of. And of course nerve specialists get more cases in New York, for the simple reason that there is no demand for nerve specialists in most small towns and because so many high-income families are concentrated in New York. I never saw a case which could be even loosely described as nervous breakdown with an income under $5,000 a year. Your severe cases run $10,000 and up.

Ladies Pack Seals For Christmas Sale

Additional Groups Aid With Preparations For Annual Pre-Christmas Sale

Two additional groups of women aided this week with the preparation of the Christmas seals, which will be placed in the mails for delivery on November 28, inaugurating the annual seal sale of the Lawrence County-Anti-Tuberculosis Society.

A group from several of the churches, composed of Mrs. Robert N. McBurney, Mrs. Howard Beck, Mrs. Louis H. Gordon, Mrs. George C. White, Mrs. Chauncey McGeorge, Mrs. T. A. Gilkey and Mrs. Thomas A. Clark helped with the work Wednesday.

Another group from the East Side Garden Club was present earlier in the week. It was composed of Mrs. Harry Sturdevant, Mrs. Fred C. Remley, Mrs. Earl McKnight, Mrs. Mary Robinson and Mrs. Jennie Shaffer.

Ceremony Sunday At Hendersonville

GROVE CITY, Nov. 19.—An elaborate corner-stone ceremony is planned at the Hendersonville M. E. church for Sunday, Nov. 22, it is announced by the pastor, Rev. C. C. Mohney. The church has been undergoing extensive repairs and alterations for several months, which will not be completed until near the first of the new year.

The special ceremony will be held at 2:30 p. m., with a message by the pastor. The stone will be laid containing a copy of the sermon, membership roster, and numerous church publications, etc.

The congregation was founded in 1831, and the present building erected in 1871. The changes now in process will modernize the building in every respect.

Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?

Do you know why external remedies so seldom give quick and permanent relief?

Why cutting does not remove the cause?

Do you know the cause of Piles is internal?

That there is congestion of blood in the lower bowel—the veins flabby, the parts lifeless?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy for itching, bleeding or protruding piles discovered by Dr. J. S. Leonhardt known as HEM-ROID that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause. It stimulates the circulation in the lower bowel—drives out the thick impure blood, and restores the affected parts.

HEM-ROID is so successful in even the most stubborn cases that Eckerd's Cut Rate and New Castle Drug Co., and all good druggists advise every sufferer to get a bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets today—take them as directed—then if not completely satisfied with results—your money back.

To Get the Best Cough Remedy, Mix It at Home

Quicker Relief. Big Saving. So Easy. No Cooking.

This famous recipe is used by millions of housewives, because there is no other way to obtain such a dependable, effective remedy for coughs that start from colds. It's so easy to mix — a child could do it.

From any druggist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex, a concentrated compound of Norway Pine, famous for its effect on throat and bronchial membranes.

Then make a syrup by stirring two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. It's no trouble at all, and takes but a moment. No cooking needed.

Put the Pinex into a pint bottle and add your syrup. This gives you a full pint of cough remedy, far superior to anything you could buy ready-made, and you get four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and is very pleasant — children love it.

You'll be amazed by the way it takes hold of severe coughs, giving you double-quick relief. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the inflamed membranes, and helps clear the air passages. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

Spent $45,972,000 On State Highways

Pennsylvania Ranks Second In Highway Expenditures For Year

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19—The Pennsylvania State Highway Department spent more on roads last year than the highway department of any other state save New York, according to a study by the United States Bureau of Public roads.

The Pennsylvania department spent $45,972,000 on roads during the twelve months. Such expenditures in New York aggregated $54,770,000. Ohio ranked well down the list with such expenditures of only $25,772,000.

The Pennsylvania Highway Department received more than any other state highway department for highway purposes in the year. The income of the Pennsylvania department from all sources was $63,465,000. Coming second in the nation the New York department had an income of but $57,187,000.

West Middlesex Man Defendant

MERCER, Nov. 19.—William C. Oplinger and wife have brought suit against Jacob Kolsky, of West Middlesex, for damages as the result of a three car collision occuring April 26 on the Sharon-Brookfield road.

The Oplinger car was struck by a car driven by Frank Szabo which had been allegedly forced into the collision by a truck driven by the defendant. The plaintiff had stopped his car in the line of traffic upon signal of the driver in a car ahead.

Mrs. Oplinger claims $10,000 for injuries of a permanent nature and her husband $5,000 for injuries and car damage.

Lioness Howls For More Food In Pittsburgh

Takes Nip Of Policeman's Finger, But Finishes With Four Pounds Of Steak

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19.—A one-armed negro animal trainer known only as "Pearl" was sought by Pittsburgh police today as they debated what to do with "the girl he left behind him"—a gaunt roaring lioness with a penchant for policemen's fingers.

Residents of the city's northside trembled last night to blood-curdling jungle shrieks emanating from an otherwise uninhabited shack. Flanked by half a hundred of the district's more doughty citizens, a police detail investigated and found the lioness, who appeared to be suffering with nothing more serious than hunger.

Nips Finger

Came then one Henry Dunn Wilkens, colored, to inform the startled officers that the beast had been left in his care by the aforesaid "Pearl." Wilkins, it developed, had been intrusted with the care of the jungle queen pending "Pearl's" return. In the interim, Wilkins said, he had been feeding the lioness scraps from his table.

Apparently, these leavings were not enough to keep the old girl contented—hence the roars. A four-pound steak from a nearby butcher's shop helped some but did not stop the beast from nipping the finger of Policeman C. H. Richards. Richards thereupon suggested more steak, which was rapidly forthcoming.

Police said today if "Pearl" does not show up, and pronto, the lioness will probably be turned over to the humane society and eventually to the city zoo.

Hope To Settle Bendix Strike

(International News Service)

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 19.—A ray of sunshine, very faint but nonetheless apparent, showed through the troubled skies of this industrial community today, indicating progress in ironing out the labor difficulties between employes and officials of the Bendix Products Corporation.

With a number of employes—500 according to Vincent Bendix, president of the company, and 1,200 according to union officials—still holding forth in the rambling factory buildings, a conference was to be held today "to talk the matter over."

Bendix, and John P. Mahoney, vice president of the company, were to meet with the executive committee of the union.

BEAVER Townships

Mrs. Bertha Wilson Beatty an October bride was honor guest when the Misses Pauline and Thelma McCullough entertained their Sabbath school class of the Wampum Presbyterian church. The Friendship Circle at their home in Big Beaver township Friday evening.

Mrs. Beatty was the recipient of a number of pretty and useful gifts and best wishes from her class associates. A delightful social evening was enjoyed by the young ladies and a tempting lunch was served by the hostesses.

The Big Beaver Grange Ladies Club met for their first meeting of their new club year on Tuesday at 1:30 o'clock. A special feature was the president's luncheon at 1:30, tables were attractive in Thanksgiving appointments. Mrs. W. G. Shannon retiring president conducted the opening exercises that followed the luncheon and presented the gavel to Mrs. C. A. Kerr, the new president, who responded in a gracious manner. New year books were received by the members, an interesting program for year is noted.

The October hostess was in charge of an Armistice and Thanksgiving program presented. The meeting adjourned to meet December 15, for their annual Christmas meeting with an exchange of gifts.

Card Of Thanks

The wife and family of the late J. E. Longshore, wish to thank relatives, neighbors and friends for sympathy shown during their recent bereavement.

RELIEF AMOUNT IS STEPPED UP

Anticipate Increased Load During Coming Month, Increase Is $497,750

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—Anticipating an increased case load during the coming month, the SERB today had set the December allocation for relief in Pennsylvania at $5,190,250, or which $461,000 will be for administrative purposes.

The allocation, an increase of $497,750 over that of last month, according to Relief Director Karl De Schweinitz, is expected to leave a balance in the state's relief till of $4,887,000 which will probably see the board through until the end of January.

De Schweinitz pointed the drastic reduction in administration expenses, made necessary by the recent special session of the legislature, of a total staff of 11,484 persons in September, 1935, but 4,321 remained during October.

A 142,000 case load is expected in December, an increase of 6,000 per week over last month, De Schweinitz said.

Maritime Strike Given Attention

Report Is Presented To A. F. Of L. Convention At Tampa—Details Not Announced

(International News Service)

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 19—The maritime strike which has tied up shipping on both the east and west coasts drew the attention of the American Federation of Labor annual convention here today.

This subject proved the first on which the convention's resolutions committee completed a report. The sentiment of this report was not disclosed but A. F. of L. officials announced the resolutions committee was ready to submit its views today on this matter. Half a dozen resolutions dealing with the maritime strike were on the roster of proposals considered by the resolutions but that sponsored by the delegates of the International Seamen's Union of America appeared to be the one to be dealt with in a preliminary report today.

In this, Andrew Furuseth, Ivan Hunter and Paul Scharrenberg called upon the federation to go on record against "outlaw" strikes, and in favor of observance of agreements between shipowners and workers.

FOIL PLOT FOR PRISON BREAK

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19—Officials at the Eastern penitentiary today were seeking to identify inmates who planned to make a break for liberty through the prison sewer system.

Authorities believe they nipped in the bud a plot by a group of dangerous criminals to flee through the same pipe used by five convicts in their flight to freedom two years ago.

The escape, apparently planned for today, was frustrated by the yard patrol. Guards found that hasps on a grating leading to a subterranean chamber and two steel doors had been smashed. Warden Herbert Smith revealed that the convicts braved 120-degree heat in heat-pipe carrying tunnels beneath the prison and had begun to chisel through a 10 ton concrete block leading to the sewer.

There's nothing certain about the mess in Europe except that Americans will take sides when it gets exciting.

Some men who are saving up for a rainy day seem to be expecting a flood.

"MAKES THE WHOLE MEAL TASTE BETTER"

PENNSYLVANIA MOTHER TELLS THE SECRET OF A SUCCESSFUL FAMILY DINNER

1 "Yes, this year I am having a home-cooked Thanksgiving dinner. And I'm serving A&P Bread, for we all agree, even I can't match its texture and flavor."

2 "I'm afraid I've spoiled my family for they always insist upon eating at home. They say they like my cooking best."

3 "But I never bake bread. Even I have to admit the texture and flavor of A&P Bread is better than mine—and much more economical, too."

4 "And I'll serve A&P Bread for Thanksgiving dinner. For good bread brings out the flavor of other foods, and makes the whole meal taste so much better."

To give you a tastier, fresher, smoother loaf of bread, A & P Bakers have scientifically blended and baked the finest ingredients money can buy. Try a loaf today. Once you taste A&P Bread we know you'll agree it's a better, tastier, fresher bread—and one that costs less money, too.

Noted Golfers Are Losers In Pinehurst PGA

Tommy Armour, Leo Diegel, Revolta, Sarazen And Hagen Are Forced Out

YOUNG GOLFERS ARE SHOWING WAY

By DAVIS J. WALSH

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 19.—After two of the wildest rounds any championship had yet known, the annual Professional Golfers Association affair proceeded into the third round today, with every indication that, with the comparative calmness of the 36-hole distance, the event would stop being idiotic and settle down to only plain, straight-forward dementia.

Johnny Revolta, the defending champion, has been wiped out like a Wall Street margin. So have Paul Runyan, Gene Sarazen and Tommy Armour, ex-champions. But all the symptoms of further madness remained.

Fine Schedule

Following is today's schedule or, in the words of the psychopathic ward chart:

Harold "Jug" McSpaden, winner over Revolta, vs. Leo Walper, the beer parlor man from Bethesda, Md.; Jimmy Thomson, master hitter, vs. Henry Picard, now seven under par for 32 holes; Harry Cooper, three under for his last seven holes, vs. Craig Wood; Bobby Cruickshank, o'd school headliner, vs. Tony Manero, present open champion. So much for the top bracket of the surviving sixteen.

In the bottom, there are Horton Smith, always dangerous, vs. Willie Goggin, former finalist; Billy Burke, former open champion, vs. Denny Shute, who shot a record 31 for the first nine yesterday; Bill Mehlhorn vs. Ed Dudley, two hardened campaigners; and Jimmy Hines, long hitter, vs. Vic Ghezzi, who would have won the last open - - - if he only could have.

The Thomson-Picard, Cooper, Wood, Cruickshank, Manero and Burke-Shute matches are really something, in spite of the popular delusion that the championship died the last two days with Walter Hagen, Leo Diegel, Sarazen, Armour, Runyan and lastly Fay Coleman, the medalist who tied the course record of 68. As a matter of fact, only three Ryder Cup men were left, namely, Smith, Picard and Wood; while Manero, Shute and Burke are the sole survivors who ever won a major title.

McSpaden, Walper, Thomson, Picard, Cooper, Wood, Cruickshank and Manero advanced in 19th annual P. G. A. championship tourney at Pinehurst, N. C.

New York State Athletic commission has indicated it will adopt a neutral attitude in the proposed James J. Braddock-Joe Louis, 12-round bout at Atlantic City in February. The commission intimated that should Braddock post a forfeit to fight Max Schmeling next June, what he does outside the Empire state will be none of the commission's affair. Joe Gould, manager of the champion, said later he would readily acquiesce with the commission's attitude.

Leroy Haynes, Philadelphia negro, who was defeated by Jack Trammel at Youngstown, scored a second-round knockout over Lew Feldman at New York last night. Feldman was on the floor four times. Haynes and Eddie Simms battle at Pittsburgh next Monday. In London, Walter Neusel beat Ben Foord, British empire heavyweight champion in 15 rounds. Max Schmeling was a spectator. New York reports say that Ross, welterweight champion, will box Ceferino Garcia, should the latter defeat Izzy Jannazzo at New York, November 27.

Dean Detton, Salt Lake City, made a successful defense of his heavyweight wrestling claims at New York last night when he defeated Dave Levin of New York in 30:41 before 3,000 spectators at Madison Square Garden. Levin weighed 198 and Detton 205. Levin held the edge apparently until Levin essayed a flying butt, missed Detton and dove over the ropes onto the concrete floor. H was knocked unconscious and is in a hospital.

Johnny Revolta, Gene Sarazen, Paul Runyan and Tommy Armour were among the first day's casualties at Pinehurst, N. C., yesterday, where the P. G. A. meet got under way. Victor Ghezzi won over Fay Coleman, 1 up, and Jimmy Hines won from Ray Mangrum, 2 and 1. Harold McSpaden trimmed Revolta on the 19th hole. Armour bowed to Mortie Dutra, 4 and 3; Runyan was upset by Clarence Doser, 2 and 1, and Sarazen yielded to Jack Patroni on the 18th green.

Nonpareil Will Stage Shoot With Niles In League

Nonpareil Rifle club will stage a Penn-Ohio league shoot at the Nonpareil range at 7:30 o'clock tonight with the strong Niles, O., Rifle team, it was announced by Karl Rohrer today.

The Nonpareil lost at Youngstown last Friday night in a league match 941 to 889. The results of the match:

Nonpareil—Rohrer 188, Curtis 181, Barber 180, Adams 177, Boyd 163—total 889.

Youngstown—Poole 191, Peck 190, Thompson 188, Dickinson 186, Wilkins 186—total 941.

Marquette Plays Puzzle Duquesne

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19.—Still slightly puzzled over their opponent's plays as presented by the freshman squad, Duquesne university's gridders slipped into their final practice session today with prospects of being in perfect shape for the important Marquette struggle here Saturday.

Yesterday, the varsity had a tough assignment stopping the undefeated Marquette's plays, running into considerable trouble solving the wide end swoops which have featured the Golden Avalanche's attack.

Carnegie Tech and Pitt snapped into heavy workouts for their annual Thanksgiving day clash.

How Good Is Gray, Fans Ask

South Side Middleweight Hopes To Emulate Example Of Firpo

TONY OLARCHECK TO TEST RUBIN

How good is Ray Gray, the South Side slugger? Monday night the riddle may be answered when Jimmie Hightower, a middleweight from Springdale, tackles the pride of the South Side. Gray has been coming fast, judging from his wins over Keith Goodballet and Frankie Kerrick and hopes to some day fill the same niche in local fistic ranks occupied by Henry Firpo, the Louisville slugger.

But can he?

This is the question.

Ray is a solid puncher but has a tendency now and then, especially when tired, to drop his hands, which gives a cagey opponent a chance to whip over a right or left to the chin and providing such a gent comes along (and Hightower may prove to be that chap) Gray may occupy a horizontal position on the canvas.

There's no questioning the toughness of Gray's chin and his ability to "take it," but everybody can be knocked out as one can feel sure from the knockout administered by the late Jim Flynn over Jack Dempsey was the Manassa Bauler was a babe in the ring, trying to go places.

Hightower has been fighting in all of the towns around Pittsburgh, Farrell and elsewhere. He is not the middleweight champion of the district but according to George Bauman, his trainer, he is tough, a willing mixer and knows exactly the kind of fighting fans like.

W. & J. Student On Card

Another chap on the card who fans can draw a line on is Tony Olarcheck of Kittanning, who is coming here to test the toughness of Mickie Rubin. In all of Mickie's scraps he has shown a tendency to be wild, slug and game. Tony is a seasoned campaigner and Rubin may have a tough evening this comin' Monday.

Bob McClure, the Washington & Jefferson welterweight, has not fought, outside of college boxing meets, and when he steps forth here it will be his first appearance locally, fistically or otherwise.

According to reports, his opponent, Jack Herron, also of the George Bauman gymnasium, has fought 10 or more times, but from what an informant told us yesterday Herron is a seasoned scrapper and will make McClure extend himself to get a draw. McClure is fast and one of the most scientific boxers in college ranks.

In addition to these scraps Kid Roberts and Joe Yotz, rivals from the Pittsburgh district, will clash in a special bout in a neutral town, and local boys, Dotey Augustine, Charlie Kuhla and Frankie Moran, will add a big touch to the local flavor of the card.

The Arena garden is situated near the corner of Neshannock avenue and North street, and is well ventilated and heated. The garden can accommodate a crowd of 1,000, and has half that many seats of the motion picture house type. The rest are bleachers and every seat in the garden is close to the ring.

Grovers Prepare For Thiel Game

Half Dozen Of Grove City College Players On Sidelines With Injuries

GROVE CITY, Nov. 19.—For the season's final game with Thiel, of late years the most important on the Grove City College football schedule, all Crimson regulars will be in uniform for the first time in weeks but a round half-dozen will play little football. Injured players have improved so that all except possibly Ray Brunton, end, will be in action.

Bob Schoch, sensational 150-pound halfback, reported today for the first time since he received a leg injury last Saturday. Coach Amos is assured the little star will be able to play his final college game, which gives the Grovers a chance with Thiel Saturday. Abe Mori, plunging fullback who has not been available since the Allegheny game, will also return to action for his last game in Crimson uniform.

With Jerry Morris, Midland quarterback, Schoch and Mori form a trio of senior regulars who are finishing their college gridiron careers Only four other members of the squad are regulars, but while the loss will be small numerically it looms large in view of value to the team.

TALES IN TIDBITS

By BILL BRAUCHER
Central Press Sports Editor

You can count on your fingers all the games this year that have been decided by a 3 to 0 score.

Temple stopped Holy Cross' winning streak by that margin when Bill Docherty, left tackle, booted a field goal from the 19-yard line. Texas A. & M. nosed out Rice by a 3 to 0 count and Washington State won over Oregon by that score. But the outstanding 3 to 0 victory of the season was Navy's over Notre Dame. The hero was Bill Ingram, son of Commander Jonas Ingram and nephew of old Navy Bill Ingram.

There may be a portent for Army's eleven in that 3 to 0 Navy victory. Army may have its hands full of Bill Ingram, Nov. 28, at Philadelphia. The prospect for a duel between Ingram and West Point's Monkey Meyer holds forth rare promise.

Young Ingram, not noted for anything in particular before that Notre Dame game, now stands out as a fellow who can do anything, kick, run or pass. He becomes not only a part of the Ingram legend at Annapolis where it seems there always has been someone named Ingram to confuse the enemy, but he is a part of another Middle tradition woven about field goals.

Curses! Jack Dalton!

Twenty-six years ago the Navy had a deadly accurate kicking specialist named Jack Dalton. He was generally called "Three to Nothing" Dalton. Whereas Ingham seems to be a dropkicker, Jack Dalton booted his from placement. In those days football was not as open as it is today. Power, rather than deception, was the vogue. Nowadays perhaps the reason there are not so many field goals is that it is so easy to heave a pass when the opponent's line stiffens up inside the 20-yard line.

In the Army-Navy game of 1910 the teams were on a par. They tore at each other, ripping off only a few precious yards at a time. The tide surged up and down the field, but when in scoring territory neither team could get going. There were some fine defensive teams in those days.

Navy had great faith in leanjawed "Three to Nothing" Dalton. Every time the Middie got close to the goal posts, Dalton tried a drop kick. Six times he failed, at distances ranging from the 18-yard line to midfield. Then, in the closing minutes of the game, the Sailors drove deep in Soldier territory. Once more Dalton was called upon to kick. There was a roar from the Navy cheering section as the ball sailed between the goal posts.

Repeats 3 To 0 Victory

Dalton was bad news to the Army two years running. In the 1911 game, with dusk falling over the field, he dropped back and again booted the goal that sent the Soldiers home talking to themselves.

The educated toe of Babe Brown kicked consternation into the Army ranks the year after Dalton was graduated. Other kickers bobbed up in intervening years to spell doom for Soldier hopes.

Two years ago Slade Cutter, a tackle, dropped back to boot the field goal that brought another 3 to 0 victory for Navy over Army. That same year it was Cutter's toe that helped to beat Notre Dame by a score of 10 to 6. Cutter booted a beautiful goal that day on a muddy field in Cleveland.

This year Army has a strong team, twice defeated, but still a heads-up, fighting outfit, with a constant passing and running threat in the person of Monkey Meyer.

But Navy has plenty of what it takes, too. And there may be an omen in the person of Bill Ingram—"Three to Nothing" Ingram!

LEROY HAYNES KAYOES FELDMAN

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Leroy Haynes, gigantic negro from Philadelphia, who brought to a close Primo Carnera's boxing career, then seemingly began to slip, has started his climb back to th big time with a knockout over Abe Feldman rugged New York heavyweight.

The end came in 1:41 of the second round in a scheduled 10-round bout at the Hippodrome last night, with Feldman groggily squatting on his haunches after four knockdowns. It marked the first time he had failed to finish.

Haynes weighed 199¾ and Feldman 180¼.

Six Teams To Comprise League At Y This Winter

Henry MacNichols, activities director of the Y today announced a meeting of the House Industrial Basketball league would be held at 7:30 p. m. tonight at the Y.

The purpose is to organize the circuit with six teams, four of which already have signified their intention of taking out franchises. They are Carnegie-Illinois, Universal Pottery, East Side Merchants, Senior Class team. Two other quintets are also expected to take out franchises.

Poushey Stars In Allegheny-Titan Football Battle

Bessemer, Pa., Boys Play Against Each Other, Shoup At Westminster

Bonner "Bouncer" Poushey, as he has been dubbed by the sports writers at Meadvi'le, Pa., was the outstanding star of the Allegheny-Westminster 7-7 tie battle at Meadville last week, it was brought to light today.

Poushey, the former Bessemer high star backfield man, was the lad who made the Allegheny touchdown. He also played a whale of a defensive game and was in the game every minute of the time.

On the opposing team was Harry Shoup, of Bessemer, son of Archie Shoup, the constable, who is matricualting at Westminster. Shoup and Poushey were team buddies at Bessemer high for two or three years. They are warm friends.

Poushey is destined to become a star of the first water at Allegheny as evidenced by the showing he made in his first year on the "Gator" eleven.

He is the son of J. W. Poushey, of Bessemer, Pa., which (is in Lawrence county.)

Franklin Alumni Will Meet Friday For First Battle

There is a lot of excitement up around the Ben Franklin Junior High school these days. All on account of the proposed Franklin Alumni and Faculty basketball game, for Friday afternoon.

The Franklin Alumni team is coached by "Bus" Strausbaugh former Franklin star and New Castle varsity center. Louie Santangelo is asked to report Friday. The Faculty team will be coached by Les Roberts.

Roberts will have such well known stars of the Church league in the lineup as William "Bill" Wallace, Freddy McClure, Herman Plant, George Binder and others.

According to Paul Maciarello, the Alumni team will defeat the teachers by a big margin. Maciarello will be one of the Alumni stars in the game. The first game for the Franklin varsity five will be on next Tuesday when they tackle the Alumni team.

Bessemer High Team To Dine

Bessemer High school football team, Lawrence county champions for the second straight year, will have their annual football banquet next Tuesday night at the school at 6:30 o'clock, it was announced by Coach J. K. Fredericks today.

It will probably be another classy affair like last year, with a mound of good things to eat and lots of speeches and praising of the Bessemer champs.

Tony Malinesky Goes To Dodgers

Burleigh Grimes Takes Former Louisville Shortstop For Brooklyn Team

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Tony Malinesky, leading shortstop in the American Association last season, has been purchased by the Brooklyn club as the initial move toward bolstering the Dodgers for the 1937 baseball campaign.

The deal, a straight cash transaction, was engineered by Burleigh Grimes, the Dodgers' new manager, for whom Malinesky played at Louisville last season.

Malinesky was the property of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who had optioned him to the Colonels. The amount paid the Pirates for his contract was not revealed.

He hit .305 in 143 games last season. His flashy fielding and throwing and consistently good clubbing brought him honor as all-star shortstop in the association.

Waner-Lavagetto For Mungo Latest Rumor In Baseball

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19. — The baseball world today was speculating on the latest rumor to appear, that of the Pittsburgh Pirate's supposed desire to swap outfielder Paul Waner and infielder Cookie Lavagetto for Van Lingo Mungo, fireball slabman of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

President Bill Benswanger, the Corsair's head man, had little to say on the matter. "I discussed a lot of things with Burleigh Grimes (the Dodgers' new pilot) when he visited the club's office last week," he said. "but that is one matter we did not discuss."

Midland Next Opponent For 'Red Hurricane'

Midland Game Thanksgiving Will End 1936 Scheduled Season For New Castle

NEED VICTORY TO KEEP IN RACE

New Castle high school "Red Hurricane" football team will end the 1936 football season on next Thursday afternoon (Thanksgiving Day) by meeting the Midland high class AA team. It will be the final conference game for the locals and they must win to stay in the race for the W. P. I. A. L. double A trophy.

Head Ccach Phil Bridenbaugh is taking it easy with the boys this week, but will send them through more extensive workouts starting Monday afternoon. The boys have played a tough program this year and the rest will do them good.

Last For Mumford.

The idle week will also give the injured members a chance to get back in shape. Dal Mumford is, still nursing his bruised knee and leg from the Warren game, but he played in the Sharon battle and gave a good account of himself. The Turkey Day game will be the last one for Mumford as a New Castle high member. It will also be the final game for Paul Small, the star left guard.

Midland high did not start out any too well this year, but in the past few games have looked a lot better and they figure on giving New Castle a tough afternoon.

Tickets for the game are on sale at the Sporting Goods store.

"Dudey" Perrett Reported Better

"Dudey" Perrett, sterling New Castle high halfback, who was hurt in the New Castle-Erie East grid game, has returned to his home from the Jameson Memorial hospital and is steadily improving.

He gets around with the use of crutches.

PLAINGROVE

W. C. T. U. MEETING

An afternoon meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Anna Macom on Wednesday. Miss Margaret Peebles was the leader. Mrs. Wilkins and Mrs. McClaren of New Castle were visitors and gave a report of the conventions held at Lebanon, Pa., and Tulsa, Okla. Miss Peebles conducted the business meeting. During the social hour the hostess, assisted by her aides, served delicious refreshments. The aides were Florence Shaw, Achsa Brennaman, Mrs. Moon and Civilla Adams.

GRANGE ELECTION

The Plaingrove grange held its regular meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall on Tuesday evening. This was the evening for election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: Worthy master, Given Shaw; overseer, Walter Rodgers; lecturer, Mrs. Edith Gardner; treasurer, Mrs. Martha McCommons; secretary, Mrs. Alice McKissick; steward, Mont Minor, and assistant, Avanelle Minor.

After the closing exercises the social committee served lunch.

PRACTICE FOR PLAY

The senior class, under the direction of Miss McCoy, is busily practicing on its play entitled "A Southern Cinderella," a comedy-drama. This play will be presented to the public Friday evening, November 20, at 8 o'clock at the consolidated school.

PLAINGROVE NOTES

LEGAL NOTICES

AN ORDINANCE

Prohibiting the handing out, giving away or passing of certain papers and advertising matter upon the highways of the City of New Castle, or depositing the same on highways, in vehicles or upon lawns, verandas, or doorsteps; providing for the issue of permits and penalties for violations, thereof.

Section 1. Be It Ordained and Enacted by the Council of the City of New Castle, That from and after the passage of this ordinance it shall be unlawful for any person to hand out, give away or pass to any other person, while either of said persons is upon any part of a public street, highway or alley of the said City, any paper, pamphlet, handbill or other advertising or reading matter.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to place, throw or deposit upon any public street, highway or alley of said City, or in any automobile or vehicle, or upon any lawn, veranda or door step, any paper, pamphlet, handbill or other advertising or reading matter, without first securing a permit to do so as hereinafter provided.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm or corporation to cause or permit anything which is declared to be unlawful by the first and second sections hereof, to be done or performed by his, her, their or its servants agents or employees.

Section 4. Nothing herein contained shall apply to:

a—Newsboys or others selling newspapers or magazines upon the streets, highways and alleys of the City at their regular established prices, or delivering newspapers or magazines to their regular subscribers or customers.

b—Candidates for election to public office handing out, giving away or passing personal hand cards.

Section 5. The Mayor, when he deems it advisable, may issue special permits or licenses to business firms, corporations or others, granting to them the right to deliver advertising matter from door to door, such permit or license to be granted on condition however, that any such advertising matter be securely deposited so as not to blow upon any lawn, public street, highway or alley of the City of New Castle.

Section 6. Any person or persons, firm or corporation, violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine or penalty not exceeding $200.00 and costs and in default of the payment thereof may be sentenced to the City or County Prison for a period not exceeding 30 days.

State of Pennsylvania, County of Lawrence, City of New Castle, ss:

I, C. Ed. Brown, City Clerk, hereby certify that the above and foregoing ordinance was passed by the Council of the City of New Castle, Pa., Nov. 12, 1936, signed by the Mayor and attest by the City Clerk.

In witness whereof I herewith set my hand and affix the seal of said City this 12th day of November, A. D. 1936.

STOCKS

Soft Undertone In Stock Market

Prices Fluctuate In Narrow Range In Trading Of Morning

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Stocks maintained a generally soft undertone early this afternoon despite a moderate recovery which brought a few groups above their previous closings.

Speculative sentiment continued depressed by the SEC's announcement regulations on member trading and margin requirements would be tightened, as a prelude to its broker-dealer segregation plan.

Aviation, foods, sugars and tobacco shares were higher, but steels, motors, rails and mail orders led the rest of the market lower.

Chrysler, ex-dividend 5½, lost about 2 points in the first few minutes, regaining half soon after and then dropped back to its low around noon. General Motors, Packard and Auburn lost sizeable fractions.

Liquidation was pronounced in the steels through most of the forenoon, with U. S. Steel leading on a drop of a point and being closely followed by Youngstown Sheet & Tube and Bethlehem.

Sugar securities followed futures upward again, Great Western and Holly reaching new high ground for the year.

Philip Morris jumped nearly four points at one time.

The bond market drifted irregularly lower. Grains eased. Cotton, though, was steady.

Knights Templar Honor Commander

Commanderies Of Eighth Division Have Enjoyable Gathering At Cathedral

Commanderies of the Eighth Division of Pennsylvania honored Eminent Sir William O. Thompson, Grand Commander of the state of Pennsylvania, Knights Templar, and members of his staff at a banquet and reception in The Cathedral last evening, 170 attending from the surrounding district.

Accompanying the grand commander were Eminent Sir Harry A. Walmer of Wilkinsburg, grand senior warden; Eminent Sir Paul M. Moore of Aliquippa, grand captain general; Eminent Sir George C. Loblenze of Titusville, grand sword bearer.

Other distinguished guests included John A. Lathwood of Pittsburgh, junior grand warden of the grand lodge of Pennsylvania, F. and A. M.; District Deputy Grand Master J. Russell Urmson of this city; District Deputy Grand Master Mott J. Robertson, of Sharon; District Deputy Grand Master William T. Yeager, of Warren, Pa., and District Deputy Grand High Priest Chauncey M. Shilling, of Sharon.

Most of the visitors were accompanied by their wives, and following the reception, dancing was enjoyed.

Members were present from the commanderies in Sharon, Beaver Falls, Butler, Greenville and New Castle, in addition to guests from eastern Ohio.

Hillsville Truck Involved In Crash

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Nov. 19.—Two trucks were badly damaged at Third avenue and Sixteenth street, New Brighton, and the police were called into the case. One of the trucks was from Hillsville, Lawrence county, and the other belonged to Thomas Long, of Seventh avenue, Beaver Falls.

Long claims he put out his hand to signal that he was about to turn into Sixteenth street and the other driver, either not understanding the signal or wishing to run around him, struck the Long truck on the side toward the front. Both trucks were damaged.

Both men carried insurance and decided to refer the matter to their respective insurance companies. No arrests were made.

Testify Today In Compensation Cases

Referee Dobrowolski today heard testimony in compensation cases brought before the workmen's compensation board. The hearings were conducted in council chambers, City Hall.

The cases were as follows:

Andy Graezano vs. Vance Coal company.

Nazzareno Massaccia, Sharon Coal & Limestone company.

Rev. Charles H. Hauger vs. Croton M. E.

Cayentra Mendoza vs. B. & O. railroad.

Alexander Bill To Be Considered

Council adjourned at noon to meet again this afternoon for the purpose of considering the Alexander bill, now in committee, submitted in April, which would give council the authority to hire any person by resolution and to also change the salary of any person or persons whose tenure of office is not fixed by state law.

It is believed that additional help may be employed and perhaps the salary of one clerk or probably more increased.

Football Squad Is Given Turkey Dinner By Board

Cheer Leaders And Number Of Faculty Members Also Guests At Annual Event

SHORT PROGRAM IS CARRIED OUT HERE

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Ellwood City high vs. King Turkey.

That was the line-up last night when the Board of Education feted the football squad, managers, cheer leaders, and the men of the faculty who were in charge of ticket sales and served at the gates.

King Turkey graced the tables in all his glory and royal airs, for was not this his season. When his army of fruit juice cocktails, olives, mashed potatoes, dressing, apple rings, buttered peas, rolls, butter, salad, pudding, coffee, and nuts, took their positions by his side, it would be putting it mildly to say that King Turkey was confident. But from all evidence he had underestimated his foe. Armed with knives, forks, and spoons Ellwood City high waged a furious and relentless battle that left King Turkey with a decisive loss. He realized too late that that steaming aroma of his only wetted the desire of extermination from Ellwood City high. There was a hurry call for re-enforcements but again King Turkey suffered a severe set-back from his fierce antognist. Grudgingly he admitted that Ellwood City high was the most worthy foe that he has done battle with, but he also observed that the strength of his opponent was gradually and certainly decreasing. Another call for re-enforcements and the battle waged again. But once more King Turkey was humbled. After this he at least had one degree of satisfaction—Ellwood City was no longer brandishing its weapons. They were weak from the furious battle and were in a slumped condition. Another attack would surely bring King Turkey victory. He realized this and sent out another order for re-enforcements. He was due to an embarrassing disappointment—King Turkey had been wiped out. All of his vast army had been disposed of. It was a crushing and humilitating defeat. The battle left Ellwood City high in a weakened state, but contented.

It was at this time that Ellwood City realized the value of their espionage department, which had prepared the enemy in such a manner that it was with unusual rest that Ellwood City High waged battle. Miss Iva Jackson and her domestic science aides received an undying gratitude of her warriors.

Hear Several Talks

Following this sumptuous dinner a short program was carried out with William Dean, chairman of the athletic committee of the board, presiding as toastmaster. Just before the dinner blessing was proffered by G. Blaine Hancher, secretary of the board. Mr. Dean then introduced Dr. H. E. Helling, president of the board, who extended warm and hearty greetings and reminded them to look forward to this event next year. Then in order came Principal Ralph C. Shaffer, Coach William Mitchell, Assistant Coach Dutch Croft, Honorary Captain Joe Pishioneri and Supt. of Schools Vaughn R. DeLong. They talked briefly on the season and the hard luck that befell the team in the second game that eliminated two key men for the season. They pointed out that their setbacks should not be taken to heart. The primary purpose of athletics was to foster a spirit of cooperation, honesty, courage, sportsmanship, etc. Supt. DeLong pointed out that in their final game of the season Thanksgiving Day with Ironton, O., Ellwood City will be representing Pennsylvania and to show every courtesy and consideration to the guests, who are traveling 300 miles to this city.

WAMPUM

MISSIONARY SERVICE

Members of the Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian church have arranged for Mrs. O. G. Taylor of New Castle to speak Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service.

Mrs. Taylor has been in the missionary work for 19 years, was on the Philippine Islands six years.

She and her husband Dr. Taylor will be guest speakers.

Kiwanis To Banquet At Westfield Grange

Members of the Kiwanis club will motor to Westfield grange hall, Mt. Jackson-Enon road, on Friday evening, November 20, to take dinner with a group of farm friends at 6:30 o'clock.

After the dinner the group will hear John McDowell, editor of the Wilkinsburg Gazette and a well known humorist, deliver the address of the evening.

Each Kiwanis member will have a farmer friend as his guest.

Mink Goes Casual

Mink coats are becoming more and more casual. This evening wrap can go to the formal ball or opera and is also worn in daytime with sports frocks. Mink coats are shorter and box-like, coming to finger-tip length. Model from Harra.

Meeting Held By Mission Society

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—The Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church held their annual thank-offering meeting Wednesday afternoon at the church.

A delicious luncheon was served at 1 o'clock with places laid for 32. Special guests were Mrs. Heberling, Mrs. McCreary, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Gail Morrison, Mrs. Mitchell, Miss Bessie Runyan and Miss Margaret Duff of Westfield, Pa. During the dinner hour some Thanksgiving thoughts were expressed by Mrs. John Brenemen.

An interesting program was carried out later with the devotions being in the form of a praise service with a number of the ladies participating. There were two special musical numbers. One of a quartet of members and the other by Mrs. Mitchell, who sang "Oh, Come to My Heart Lord Jesus." This was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience.

The guest speaker of the day was Miss Duff, whose subject was "Missionaries at Home and Abroad." Her foreign subject was "Ethiopia." She told of her 4½ years' work at Avella, Pa., with the miners. Her talk was interesting and inspiring.

The blessed boxes were received at this time. A business meeting followed with Mrs. W. H. Shields presiding. The hostesses, Mesdames Harry Harris, chairman; J. A. Evans, I. J. VanGorder and J. Jay Dunn, deserve special credit for the beautiful table and arrangements made for the occasion.

C. I. A. Club Has Meeting Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19—Miss Maxine Harrison entertained the members of the C. I. A. Club at her home on Wayne avenue last night. The Misses Dot Hill, Mildred Hall and Ada Irwin were special guests.

Two tables of bridge occupied the attention of those present for the greater part of the evening. Miss Marie Bartle was presented with the high score award at the close. At an appointed hour a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess with the aid of her mother.

In two weeks the club will meet at the home of Miss Bartle on First avenue.

Past Grands Of I. O. O. F. Lodge Meets Tonight

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19—Past Grands Association of the I. O. O. F. will meet this evening. The local lodge will meet for a short session at 7 o'clock and then will motor to Bessemer. Those desiring to donate canned fruits, jellies, jams to the Pittsburgh Orphanage, are requested to bring them at this time. They will be sent away Friday.

SPECIAL MUSICAL AND ADDRESS AT TRINITY

At the special musical service given by the choir of Trinity church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock with Miss Isabel T. Johnson at the organ, the rector, the Rev. Philip C. Pearson will make an address on, "Little Known Facts about Three Musicians," being those whose compositions are sung for the occasion.

It is believed this new feature will make the offering of praise to God more full of meaning and significance.

Lilyville Group Has Five Guests

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Rev. and Mrs. Arnold Berg, Mrs. John Nagel, Mrs. E. E. Gallaher and Mrs. George McKenna, were special guests of the Women's Missionary society of the St. Mark's Lutheran church of Lilyville when the members assembled on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Edward McKenna of the Ellwood-Zelienople road for the November meeting.

Quilting was the pastime of the day with Mrs. McKenna assisted by Mrs. George McKenna serving a tempting casserole dinner at noon.

Rev. Berg conducted an interesting devotional period. Plans were made to send cookies to the Orphan's home at Zelienople for Thanksgiving. They are to be brought to the church on Sunday.

At the next meeting which is to take place on Wednesday, December 16, at the home of Mrs. Melissa Daufen of near Celia, the society planned to make personal bags which are to be sent to the Inter Mission in Pittsburgh for Christmas. They will give the Orphan's home a quilt for Christmas. The next meeting is to be the annual Christmas exchange party.

Knox Society Packs Mission Box

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—A most enjoyable meeting took place on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clarence W. Yahn of the Ellwood-Zelienople road when members of the Women's Missionary society of the Knox Presbyterian church gathered there for the regular meeting with twelve members and two guests, Mrs. Charles Foreman and Mrs. Henry Druschel, participating.

The morning hours were devoted to packing a box of Christmas gifts which are to be sent to a mission station in the Kentucky mountains. At noon the group partook of a most delicious tureen dinner served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Charles Hauserman.

The Southern Mountains was the topic for discussion and it was presented in an interesting manner by Mrs. William Slade as leader. Reading articles on the subject were Mrs. Carl Mathews and Mrs. Yahn. Mrs. R. E. Bell conducted the prayer cycle.

On Wednesday, December 16, the group will hold another all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Hugh Hardie of North Sewickley featuring the annual Christmas exchange and a tureen dinner.

William G. Myers Dies On Wednesday

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19—William G. Myers, aged 65, passed away in his home at 620 Florence avenue, on Wednesday afternoon, about 1:30 o'clock. Mr. Myers was a stone mason and lived in Ellwood City most of his life.

He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. William Evans, of New Castle, Mrs. Clyde McCurdy, of Ellwood City, Charles Myers, of Ellwood City, William H. Myers, of Brackenridge, one sister, Mrs. Sarah Blaine, of Hollywood, Cal., one brother, Clinton Myers, of Smiley Stop.

The body has been removed to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clyde McCurdy, of Wiley Hill, Ellwood City. Funeral services will be conducted from the McCurdy home, on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Fathers And Sons To Banquet Friday

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Friday evening, November 20, the annual fathers and sons banquet under the auspices of the "Bridge Builders" will be held at the First Presbyterian church.

A splendid program has been arranged by the executive committee. The feature of the program will be the presence of Thomas Jefferson who will be present in character and costume. The character will be portrayed by Edward Mackasek. The response will be given by Thomas Jones.

Program to consist of bridge ritual, dinner, pep singing, address by "Thomas Jefferson" response, business meeting and fellowship between father and son.

Republican Women Close State Sessions

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—Pennsylvania's organized Republican women convened in closing sessions today to elect officers and rally finally at their 14th annual convention.

The state's Republican national committee members, Sen. G. Mason Owlett, of Wellsboro, and Mrs. Worthington Scranton, of Scranton, were the day's principal speakers called before the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women.

Following their addresses, the convention was to pass upon its nominees for council offices, including Mrs. Humbert Borton Powell, Devon, present corresponding secretary who will succeed Mrs. George R. Hemphill, Beaver Falls, as president.

Approximately 500 delegates assembled last night and heard leaders urge that they stand four square against "what we regard as wrong government policies."

"We do not want disagreements," declared Mrs. Grace B. Reynolds, national committeewoman from Indiana, guest speaker, "but we do reserve the right to oppose what we regard as wrong governmental policies and to stand against them with legally provided instruments of opposition."

Justice Arthur Day, of the Ohio Supreme court, principal speaker at the Council's annual banquet, sharpened the theme of the meeting with the assertion that "America is too big, too complex, to give any one man its leadership."

"America," he declared, "must have the leadership of its people."

"For the first time in the history of the human race," he continued, "the people have voluntarily by vote indicated their willingness to give up their liberties."

Referring to Republicans who were so registered but voted Democratic on November 3, Mrs. Powell asserted:

"It is time to cut out the dead and rotten wood in our party."

A few "canker sores", she said, exist in the United States today. She defined them as the "spots of Communism and 'red' influence which may spread on our body politic."

Justice Day, who predicted that "Pennsylvania will go Republican at the very next general election," stressed the importance of safeguarding the sovereignty which lies "with the people themselves." He said:

"The danger lurking in this country is that we may surrender too many of our rights and strip ourselves to a point of political helplessness. Rights are not taken from us, but we are asked to surrender them more and more by groups who tell us that we have not the competence to govern ourselves."

No Decision On Street Paving

Sumner And Hazlecroft Avenue Residents Oppose Paving

FAIRFIELD RESIDENTS FAVOR IMPROVEMENT

Council convened in the City Hall today, but delayed making any decision relative to the paving of Fairfield avenue, Sumner avenue and Hazlecroft avenue. A petition signed by 12 persons, requested that Fairfield avenue be paved. However, Councilman B. F. Butler said residents of the other two avenues opposed winter-time paving.

Mayor Charles E. McGrath explained to colleagues that Fairfield avenue petitions had not adopted an arbitrary stand. Instead, the mayor said the petitioners did not want councilmen to abandon their judgment about the paving, meaning that should council believe the weather too dangerous for good paving, it should not be done.

During the proceedings Glenn R. Throop, city engineer, who has gone on record as opposed to winter-time paving, said winter-time paving on the north hill is "dangerous", owing to the hardpan.

CHEST WORKERS MAKE REPORTS AT NOON TODAY

paign was announced today, the campaign hosts gave a real cheer.

The report get-together was brief—opening at 12:15, as scheduled, and closed at 1:15, as scheduled. General Chairman David S. Pyle, popular leader of the drive, made sure it did—and he promised the campaigners that every campaign function would close on time.

The dining hall of the public square church was almost filled by the workers.

At the raised speakers' table sat General Chairman Pyle, W. Keith McAfee, head of the Community Chest board of directors; A. L. Bintz, Jr., the drive's vice chairman; Harry Thayer, campaign director; Numa F. Vidal, Jr., Attorney Wylie McCaslin, Walter W. Duff and Thomas H. Hartman, all prominent residents who are active in the campaign.

Meet Friday At Noon

The Chest campaign teams will gather in the First Christian church for their second report on Friday at 12:15 p. m. That session, like today's, will be short and given over solely to reports.

There were no speeches today—only brief campaign instructions. There was no music.

Along the back wall of the church dining room was the huge campaign "score board" upon which the workers expect to chalk up their victorious "$60,370" at least by Tuesday evening, November 24. The campaign has been scheduled to close that night.

Many of today's reports were only partial summaries. Time after time reporting division or team heads announced "just a partial report" as they called out their first subscription totals.

General Chairman Pyle, in his brief remarks, once more praised Mayor Charles E. McGrath and his committee of plant representatives "for getting this campaign off to a good start." He referred, of course, to the successful "Towne party" which drew hundreds to the Cathedral on Tuesday night, the same night the Chest campaigners gathered for their "kick off" dinner.

Pyle repeated his belief that "we're going over the top" and from the applause it could be told the workers feel that way, too.

The News of Friday will carry a complete summary of the report made today.

Erie Cafe Owner Is Sued For $250

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19.—William Moore, owner and operator of the "Brown Derby" in Erie, was sued for $250 in a complaint filed in federal court here today by Ager, Yellen and Bornstein, Inc., of New York, music publishers.

The complaint alleged Moore had infringed on the copyrights of a song, "You Can't Pull the Wool Over My Eyes," by permitting it to be played in his place of business, September 8 was named as the specific date of the occurrence.

TWO SMALL FIRES HERE THIS MORNING

Two small fires were reported here late this morning.

At 10:05, members of the McGivern family of 407 Sumner avenue were burning some old pillows in the furnace in the cellar, when some of the material on the floor took fire. There was no loss.

At 11:35 this morning, Seventh ward firemen were called to the home of Mrs. Bertha Williams, of 204 East Cherry street, because of a short circuit in the wiring of the home. The loss was around $2.

That strike on a small railroad in the south isn't a burlesque even if a group of angry women strike sympathizers did strip the fireman of an offending locomotive.

Rumor Is Denied By Mrs. Raffray

Will Not Marry Ernest Simpson, Says Wife Of New York Insurance Broker

IS FRIEND OF "WALLY" SIMPSON

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Despite insistent rumors among her friends to the contrary, Mrs. Jacques A. L. Raffray, wife of a New York insurance broker and close friend of Mrs. Wallis Simpson, declared in a written statement as she sailed for England early today that she will not marry Ernest Simpson.

Acknowledging that her name had been linked with that of Simpson, whose wife recently won a decree nisi in England, Mrs. Raffray, through her attorney, issued the following statement aboard the steamship Hamburg:

"Mrs. Raffray is sailing to spend the winter in London. She was a house guest of Mrs. Wallis Simpson last spring and summer, and returned to New York in September.

Living Incognito

"In order to achieve quiet and avoid publicity, she has been living incognito in New York for the last few weeks. She has an apartment in London for the winter.

Mrs. Raffray does not know how long she will remain in that country.

"Press reports had linked Mrs. Raffray with Mr. Ernest Simpson, but Mrs. Raffray wished to point out that she and Mr. Raffray are not divorced, though they have maintained separate residences in New York for the last year."

REPORT ACCIDENTS

Several automobile collisions of a minor nature occurred here during the past 24 hours, according to reports made to police.

Cars driven by Archie Consla, 1208 Albert street and Louis McAnaney, 5 East Laurel avenue, had a collision in North Jefferson street, near Falls street, at 5:50 p. m. yesterday.

Machines operated by Fred Caruso of 503 East Lutton street and Edwin Carter, Volant, collided at South Mill and Home streets at 5:45 p. m. Wednesday.

Seek To Delay First Hearing In Murder Case

Delay Sought In Examining Trial Of Brig. Gen. Henry H. Denhardt

(International News Service)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 19—While counsel for Brigadier General Henry H. Denhardt sought technical cause to delay his examining trial tomorrow, investigators for the commonwealth today were completing ballistic and chemical tests which they expect will warrant Henry County Judge A. S. Morgan in holding the colorful 60 year old soldier-politician to the grand jury for the murder of his fiancee, Verna Carr Taylor, 40 year old La Grange widow.

The scene of the legal battle on the general's behalf shifted to the state capital at Frankfort, where defense Attorney Bodes K. Meyers presented a petition for a writ of prohibition to the court of appeals. The petition asked the appeals court to require Judge Morgan to enter an order making the commonwealth's gruesome collection of exhibits available to the defense and postponing the examining trial ten days or until such time as the court of appeals may direct.

Judge Morgan, sitting at New Castle, seat of the county where Mrs. Taylor's violent death occurred November 6, yesterday refused to accede to this defense demand or to continue the examining trial while the higher court considered the question.

Mrs. Taylor's bullet-pierced body was found in a roadside ditch several hundred feet from the general's stalled car about 35 miles northeast of Louisville, near the Oldham-Henry county line. The general's .45-calibre army revolver, with two empty chambers, was lying nearby.

Will Recommend Gable Respite To Governor Earle

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—The state board of pardons announced today it would recommend the granting of a respite until January 4 for Jacob Gable, Johnstown youth sentenced to die next week for the slaying of aged Harriet Goltstein.

Gov. George H. Earle was expected to make the respite official, recommended by the pardon board to permit a "reinvestigation of the case."

Attorney Charles J. Margiotti announced the board will re-argue Gable's application for commutation of sentence to life imprisonment on December 16. Between now and then, he said, the board will investigate the youth's mental condition.

J. H. Connell, Jr., Cresson attorney, who appeared for Gable, based his plea on the 22-year-old defendant's alleged insanity.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

TWELVE W. P. A. WORKERS HURT

Truck Carrying Men Is Wrecked Along Road Near Monongahela

(International News Service)

MONONGAHELA, Pa., Nov. 19—Corporal A. A. Myrter, of the State Highway Patrol, today investigated the wreck of a speeding truck which late yesterday plunged into a roadside embankment and sent 12 WPA workers to a hospital, two in a serious condition.

Conflicting tales by the truck driver and the operator of a passenger car which allegedly forced the truck off the road, led to another investigation, to be made by WPA foreman James Pritchard, of New Eagle. Both drivers have been ordered to appear before J. M. Crockett, Washington county safety inspector, next week.

The accident occurred on the Monongahela road between here and Finleyville while the men were returning home from work. Hastily commandeered cars rushed the men to a hospital where six were detained for additional treatment.

The two seriously injured were John Moreschi, 42, and Harry Boyd, 38, both of New Eagle, suffering from chest injuries and shock. Two of the other injured came from Monongahela while the remainder lived in New Eagle.

Elmer Jericho, 36, of New Eagle, was the driver of the WPA truck and Frank Kopecek, of Donora, operated the other car.
